ASST PHYSIO COVID +VE BUT 5TH TEST SET TO GO AHEAD

India's assistant physio Yogesh Parmar latest to contract virus in the team as players express concern to play the Test

ALL INDIA PLAYERS TEST NEGATIVE

The team didn't train on Thursday. The contingent has been placed under isolation in their hotel rooms where all of them were subjected to RT-PCR test. The results returned negative later in the evening. However, the BCCI is still worried that in case an IPL-bound player tests positive, it could have an impact on resumption of the league in the UAE from September 19

CONCERN AMONG PLAYERS TOO

- Several players received treatment from Parmar, including the likes of Rohit Sharma, Cheteshwar Pujara and Mohd Shami
- The team will undergo another round of testing — lateral flow test — on Friday morning and those results will confirm whether the match goes ahead as scheduled or not | P17

BRICS stresses on stemming Af terror export

Grouping to help mitigate the humanitarian crisis, support intra-Afghan peace dialogue

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@New Delhi

COUNTERING terror, particularly in the context of the Afghanistan upheaval, dominated discussions on Thursday at the five-nation BRICS virtual summit chaired by India, with all heads of state collectively agreeing to combat the export of terror and cooperate to mitigate the humanitarian crisis in the war-torn country.

"We call for refraining from violence and settling the situation by peaceful means. We stress the need to contribute to fostering an inclusive intra-Afghan dialogue so as to ensure stability, civil peace, law and order in the country. We underscore the priority of fighting terrorism, including preventing attempts by terrorist organisations to use Afghan territory as terrorist sanctuary and to carry out attacks against other countries, as well as drug trade within Afghanistan. We emphasise the need to address the humanitarian situation and to uphold human rights, including those of women, children and minorities," a joint declaration adopted at the end of the summit, called the New Delhi Declaration, stated.

Secretary (CPV) in the ministry of external affairs, Sanjay Bhattacharya, said there was strong consensus on condemning terrorism, including cross-border terror, terror financing and the springing up of radical organisations.

In his opening address, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said BRICS has adopted a counter-terrorism action plan that was drawn up by national security advisors of the member states.

Putin said the situation in Afghanistan must not become a threat to its neighbours. "Russia, just like its BRICS partners, consistently supports the establishment of the long-awaited peace and stability in Afghanistan."

THE Allahabad High Court on Thursday stayed a fast-track court order directing the Archaeological Survey of India to do a physical survey of the Gyanvapi Mosque in Varanasi to know if the mosque was built on the ruins of an old temple.

A single-judge bench of Justice Prakash Padia also stayed all proceedings related to the matter in the Varanasi fast-track court.

The bench noted the HC had on March 15 reserved its verdict on petitions related to the same dispute pending before it, but the lower court did not have the "judicial courtesy and decorum" to respect the same.

Officers misused position to demolish homes: HC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

A division bench of Acting Chief Justice Satish Chandra Sharma and Justice Sachin Shankar Magadum passed took serious note of the high-handed action on the part of Assistant Commissioner MG Shivanna and Tahsildar Shivappa Lamani, Bengaluru South sub-division, which caused irreparable loss and hardship to the rightful owners of properties.

Upholding the order passed by the single judge imposing cost and ordering inquiry against the two officers, the court was of the view that in fact, the single judge was lenient while imposing a cost of Rs 10,000 on the officers. It is because of these officers that a few houses in Bengaluru South taluk were demolished after the Assistant Commissioner passed an order for restoration and resumption on February 18, 2020, and on February 26, 2020, the court added.

The court said the authorities have misused their office for extraneous considerations and the single judge has rightly dealt with the matter. Therefore, the court was not inclined to interfere with the order passed by the single judge, imposing cost and ordering inquiry against the authorities.

The court noted that natural justice is an expression of English common law and involves a procedural requirement of fairness. The principles of natural justice are not embodied rules and are also not codified. But the same constitutes a necessary ingredient and requisite to ascertain whether due process is followed. Natural justice requires that a person receives a fair and unbiased hearing before a decision is made, that will negatively affect the party. The three main requirements of natural justice that must be made in every case are: adequate notice, fair hearing and no bias, the court said.

PETER VIDAL

10th September: This is an optimistic moment because it's seen as the beginning of a new cycle, even if in a small way. However, tradition holds that, if you're launching new enterprises, the most auspicious phase comes in a few days' time. But, that said, there's no harm in pressing ahead with preliminary arrangements today. In fact, what I'd say is 'there's no time like the present'!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
You may be hesitating about a new venture, but today's events should spur you on. Long-term plans take time to filter through, but when current difficulties clear, the way will be paved towards the fulfilment of a long-held childhood ambition.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
There may not be long to go before you make an important and, perhaps, overdue, breakthrough. Try and arrange a follow-up to a recent meeting or interview, and be prepared for an unexpected encounter. Surprises may disturb you, but only because you're caught on the hop.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Make the most of generous offers of co-operation and you might be ready to off-load some tedious chores. Today's activities will be profitable, especially if you are able to harness energy into proper, productive channels. You need to keep control.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
You have an excellent chance of settling minor issues once and for all. Important questions may take more time, yet they will still benefit from your increasingly decisive state of mind. And, as soon as other people know that you mean business, they'll change their approach.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
The emotional undercurrents are delicate and subtle. There is still scope for you to manipulate events in your favour by being in the right place at the right time. There could be good news from an official quarter, even though it will take more than this to cheer some of you up.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
It is easy to lighten the atmosphere as long as you are positive. Financial questions can be settled, or a partnership issue resolved, on amicable terms. Although there are one or two risks, it's a generally helpful day for tying up loose ends and trimming down routine work.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
The more you get out and about, the more promising your day. Interviews and meetings will help defuse tense situations at work, and help you get clear about possible legal complications. The last thing you want to do now is create any more emotional tangles.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Today's meetings will be helpful from the financial point of view. One thing to remember, though, is that you must discuss all items of expenditure with partners and close companions before committing yourself. To go back on a promise will cause much irritation, as I'm sure you know.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
This looks like a promising time to consolidate emotional ties and boost your social position. Press on with financial or business plans with all the determination that is typical of your sign. And try to make partners see that you're talking sense!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Teamwork is vital, as you know too well! Yet there is no doubt that you'll have difficulty achieving a spirit of co-operation. The truth is, you'll have to tread a careful path, combining a firm approach with abundant consideration for others. That's the way to success.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
There is much to be said for shaking up your environment and moving into fresh areas. Somehow you need to get out of a potentially suffocating round of duties, burdens and responsibilities. The most attractive social invitation could come from afar.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You're still in two minds about an important venture, undecided whether to commit yourself or not. But then that's a typical Piscean dilemma, isn't it? In the meantime, you'll try to create a semblance of order and get domestic responsibilities tidied up.

Covid test, jab mandatory for shopkeepers in DK

MANGALURU: In a big relief to shops and business establishments, the Dakshina Kannada district administration has lifted the weekend lockdown. However, night curfew (between 9 pm and 5 pm) and Covid restrictions on the Kerala border will continue. Dakshina Kannada DC KV Rajendra, however, said owners and staff of shops should be vaccinated with at least one dose of vaccine, and also undergo a mandatory Covid test once every 10 days. They have also been asked to cooperate with the local administration.ENS

Long Covid in kids not as severe as in adults, say experts

Study: Fatigue, headache, brain fog, other symptoms seen in children more than a month after recovery

IFFATH FATHIMA @Bengaluru

WHILE many adults face the risk of 'long Covid'— wherein they continue to have symptoms even after recovery— it has come to light that even children infected during the second wave of the pandemic are experiencing post-Covid conditions like fatigue, lung issues, headache, and joint pain for up to four weeks after recovery. A recent study published in the UK found that 4 per cent of the children surveyed had symptoms for more than a month after getting infected with the Novel Coronavirus. Some of the symptoms they experienced were brain fog, cough, breathlessness, loss of smell, and fatigue.

Meanwhile, health experts in Bengaluru are also seeing many children deal with post-Covid issues, though the symptoms are not as severe as seen in adults.

Dr Chandrika Bhat (Consultant-Paediatric Rheumatology), Rainbow Children's Hospital, Marathahalli, pointed out that the condition is known as 'long-Covid syndrome'. "We are mainly witnessing two types of post-Covid issues— Multi-system Inflammatory Syndrome in Children (MIS-C) and long-Covid syndrome. In long Covid syndrome, children exhibit varied symptoms like headache, joint pain, abdominal pain, constipation, digestion issues, fatigue, and non-specific aches and they continue to suffer from pain for a longer time. However, we have no evidence to suggest that children are more affected than adults. In fact, long Covid syndrome is nothing but 'chronic fatigue syndrome' which we had seen earlier with other infections. Now, with so many Covid cases, we are seeing this in Covid-recovered children as well," Dr Bhat said.

Dr Srikanta JT, Paediatric Pulmonologist, Aster CMI Hospital, who is also a member of the Karnataka Third Wave Committee, said, "At our centre, we saw children with long Covid syndrome... but the severity was less when compared to adults. Even those children with long-Covid syndrome experienced only mild fatigue to cough barring a few with very bad lung infection. They have gotten better with prolonged medication," he said.

Meanwhile, Dr Sanjeeva Reddy, Consultant-Paediatrics, PICU and Neonatology, Manipal Hospitals, Whitefield, disclosed that there is a well defined clinical syndrome that causes multi-organ dysfunction which affects heart, livers, kidneys and the brain, called MIS-C. "There is a very effective treatment which is a combination of antibodies and steroids for this," he said.

Meanwhile, doctors pointed out that it is important for children to be exposed to sunlight between 7am and 10am to get the required Vitamin D.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said that there was no discussion on cabinet expansion during his recent meeting with BJP national president JP Nadda. Bommai said Nadda advised the BJP state leaders to focus on strengthening the party

Caste conundrum will haunt Bommai right up to assembly polls

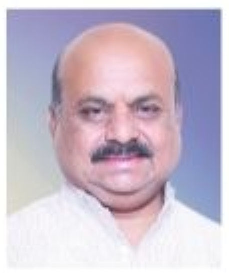
Backward Classes demand release of socio-economic survey report, major communities oppose it

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Tumakuru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai, back after a fruitful New Delhi visit which yielded development projects for Karnataka, may not get a breather with the sensitive caste census issue expected to gain momentum. The assembly session is set to begin on Monday, and the opposition is readying its arsenal to target the government on this thorny subject.

The backward classes have already started demanding the release of the caste-based socio-economic survey report of the Backward Classes Commission, completed in 2017. But the present commission chairman Jayaprakash Hegde has highlighted that the erstwhile member-secretary and some members are not ready to sign the report. In fact, the survey report cannot be released unless the chief minister gives his nod.

Perhaps taking a cue from Hegde's remarks, the newly floated Vokkaliga Veerashaiva Lingayat Vedike is preparing to oppose acceptance of the report and its release by the government.



The Vedike held several meetings to create awareness among the respective communities to oppose the release of the report. Besides, central committee member of Veerashaiva Mahasabha B S Nataraj on Thursday wrote to Mahasabha president Shamanuru Shivashankarappa to take measures to create awareness among the community, and see to it that the census report is not released at any cost.

"A leaked version of the H K Kantharaju Commission report puts the Veerashaiva community's population at a mere 50 lakh (9.8 per cent)," he said.

According to previous surveys in Karnataka, the Veerashaiva Lingayat population is 16 per cent, followed by Scheduled Castes (15.1 per cent), religious minorities including Muslims (14 per cent), Scheduled Tribes (6.96 per cent), Kurubas (5 per cent) and other smaller communities. The real picture will evolve only when the report is accepted and released, said a former member.

"The report should be accepted and released as we will come to know which castes have improved their socio-economic and political status, based on which we can take a relook at giving social justice to those who still remain backward. It may also throw light on the Panchamashali Lingayats, who are demanding the 2A tag, based on their backwardness," remarked senior Congress leader V S Ugrappa.

In fact, the Panchamashalis, led by religious head Sri Jayamrithyunjaya Swami, have set October 1 as the deadline for the government to take a decision, as the Centre has paved the way for the state to form its own Backward Classes communities list.

There is much curiosity as to how Bommai will handle the demands, and also a section of SCs seeking classification of quota. The issue is likely to haunt him for the rest of his term, and turn tricky when Karnataka heads into assembly elections in 2023.

Govt plans spl programme for Covid-affected families

ENS @ Bengaluru

TO help the poor affected by the Covid-19 pandemic, the State Government will soon formulate a special programme, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai said on Thursday.

The pandemic has had a devastating impact on a large number of people, many children were orphaned and many families lost their children and all those people need social security, Bommai said. To help families affected by the pandemic, the previous BS Yediyurappa government had announced Rs 1 lakh financial assistance and the officials have been directed to ensure that the money is deposited directly to their accounts. Apart from the financial aid announced earlier, the government will formulate a programme to help children continue their education, take care of health and help families so that they do not have to depend on others, the CM said, while participating in a discussion on a private Kannada TV channel.

Sources in the CMO's Office said the details of the new programme will be announced soon after getting details from the departments concerned. The Congress have accused the government of not providing financial assistance announced earlier to help the Covid-19 affected families. Congress leaders have also stated that they will take up the issue in the legislature session.

ENERGY MINISTER TO ADDRESS ISSUES PLAGUING EV SECTOR

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

WITH the entire world working towards reducing carbon footprint, the Karnataka transport and energy department are also trying to address the issue by giving a boost to electric vehicles. The lack of charging stations and cost have been a cause for concern. An assessment by the transport department showed that people were not satisfied with charging facilities because each company has a different battery, which requires a separate pin at charging stations. Besides, the cost of a spare battery and vehicle also deters people.

"An EV two-wheeler costs around Rs 1.25 lakh, but a battery costs Rs 30,000-40,000. This is despite waiving registration fee and tax," said a senior transport official. An energy department official added that despite all efforts, including the PPP model, setting up charging stations has been a hassle. There are just 136 charging stations in Karnataka.

Government and private buildings are yet to take the initiative to set up charging stations. "Companies say that stations will be set up when vehicles are purchased. But citizens point out that when there is no facility to charge, how can they purchase vehicles. Despite issuing orders, shopping complexes, malls, apartment complexes and government buildings have not set up charging units," the official added.

Energy Minister V Sunil Kumar told The New Indian Express that he has called for a meeting of all EV manufacturers and stakeholders on September 18, to list out their problems. "A target of setting up 500 EV charging stations in Karnataka has been set. A rally was held on Thursday morning on the occasion of World Electric Vehicle Day to make people aware, but more needs to be done. The problems will be resolved at the meeting, and targets set," he said.

Transport officials said the biggest target is two-wheelers, as over 75 per cent of vehicles on the road are two-wheelers. Also, the charge lasts 200km for a four-wheeler, so setting up charging stations on highways is a must.

Electronics manufacturing hub to come up on 400 acres

BENGALURU: Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai termed his two-day Delhi visit "successful" as many pending projects concerning Karnataka were cleared and the State and Union governments also agreed to take up some new projects. Speaking to the media here on Thursday, Bommai said that the Satellite Town Ring Road (STRR), from Dobbespet to Mysuru Road in Bengaluru that was pending for two years was cleared and the work will start within the next 5-6 months. Meanwhile, Bommai said an Electronics Manufacturing Cluster (EMC) will be set up between Bengaluru and Kolar to boost the electronics manufacturing sector. The Centre and the State Government will work together on the cluster that will come up on 400 acres. Bommai said that the Centre has released Rs 400 crore for the Pradhan Mantri Awas Yojana on Wednesday and the remaining Rs 1,500 crore will be released after compliance reports are submitted. Tumakuru-Davangere, Hubballi-Belagavi, and Bidar-Kalaburgi railway projects and highway projects were also discussed with the union ministers concerned during his two-day visit on Tuesday and Wednesday. Steps will be taken to improve connectivity in rural areas under the rural digitisation project, Bommai added. ENS

Now, JDS to crack the whip on Kolar MLA

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE JDS' woes with its own legislators seem to be far from over. Just when the party was dealing with issues disciplinary concerning Chamundeshwari MLA G T Deve Gowda and Gubbi MLA S R Srinivas, who have openly distanced themselves from the party, it is now preparing to launch disciplinary action against Kolar MLA K Srinivas Gowda.

Srinivas Gowda had recently spoken in support of Congress leader Ramesh Kumar and against his own party leader H D Kumaraswamy over recycled waste water being supplied to Kolar, inviting disciplinary action. Party national president H D Deve Gowda had indicated that action would be taken against the MLA.

Asked about it, H D Kumaraswamy said, "We have decided to take disciplinary action against Srinivas Gowda as suggested by Deve Gowda."

Party state president H K Kumaraswamy too said, "We will hold a legislature party meeting on September 13 and decide on the next course of action."

K'buragi impasse: Veterans try to broker deal

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

THE price for the crucial four seats in the Kalaburagi Mahanagara Palike continues to rise — going up from Rs 75 lakh per seat on Wednesday to Rs 1 crore on Thursday, according to informed sources.

The four JDS councillors, meanwhile, continue to remain holed up in a safe location near Bengaluru.

While former Chief Minister H D Kumaraswamy told The New Indian Express that the decision was left to the councillors themselves, both Congress and BJP leaders confirmed that they are in touch with JDS councillors. Two of the JDS councillors are former Congressmen, while one is a former BJP worker, and the fourth is from JDS.

While BJP leaders, including Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, have claimed that their party will rule the Kalaburagi civic body, the Congress has not given up yet.

Backchannel talks are also going on between party veterans, with Rajya Sabha Opposition leader Mallikarjun Kharge speaking to JDS supremo H D Deve Gowda a few days ago. He said he would also speak to Kumaraswamy and seek support in the interest of secularism, to keep communal forces out. Gowda, too, confirmed that Kharge had spoken to him.

Former minister Priyank Kharge told The New Indian Express, "We are not in a race with the BJP and will only go by what the Constitution allows by way of a coalition. We are asking for support on the grounds that we will do what is good for Kalaburagi. We cannot match them on other parameters,'' he said, hinting that the Congress will not be able to match the BJP's power and influence in other areas.

"It is surprising that they have not yet announced election dates for the Mayor and Deputy Mayor posts. It looks like BJP is waiting for confirmation of support before announcing dates for the mayoral election,'' Priyank Kharge said.

The Congress is of the view that JDS members need not support the party, instead, they can just abstain from voting.

The Kalaburagi Mahanagara Palike has 55 members and the ruling party needs 28 seats to take control. The Congress is just one member short. Since legislators and parliamentarians are allowed to vote, the Congress has three votes -- MLAs from Gulbarga, one MLC and RS MP Mallikarjun Kharge. The BJP has Lok Sabha MP Dr Umesh Jadhav, one MLA and three MLCs, taking its number to 29.

BJP ready to use all tactics to bag Kalaburagi

RAMKRISHNA BADSESHI
@ Kalaburagi

THOUGH the State government is yet to announce the date for elections to the posts of Mayor and Deputy Mayor in the Kalaburagi Mahanagara Palike (KMP), the BJP has made it clear that it is going to use every trick in the book to come to power and instal a BJP mayor in Kalaburagi.

The Congress is also using all tactics at its disposal, knowing full well that the co-operation of the JDS is crucial for both parties. The JDS, meanwhile, has adopted a wait-and-watch policy.

Kalaburagi Regional Commissioner N V Prasad, who is also Returning Officer for elections to the Mayor and Deputy Mayor posts, said the government has to issue a gazette notification and fix the category for the posts, only then can a calendar of events be published.

BJP state president Nalin Kumar Kateel inaugurates a programme to felicitate newly-elected BJP corporators, in Kalaburagi on Thursday

Ever since results were announced, the BJP has maintained that it will rule KMP despite winning 23 seats, compared to 27 seats won by the Congress. On Thursday too, BJP State President Nalin Kumar Kateel said at a party event that KMP will have a BJP Mayor.

Though Kateel did not elaborate what "using all techniques" means, BJP may have to resort to 'Operation Lotus' again. The party has to manage three out of four JDS members and woo them to join BJP. If three members join the BJP, they will not lose their membership, as per the Anti-Defection Law. In that case, the BJP may offer good posts to the members. It might postpone announcing the category for the posts till a more favourable time, political pundits say.

The Congress, too, could play the game of wooing JDS members to join the party. As a second preference, both the BJP and Congress could play the 'gentleman's game' and form an alliance with the JDS, which will team up with the party which meets its conditions.

Senior JDS leader Bandeppa Kashampur, who is also Deputy Leader in the Legislative Assembly, said there is time to take a decision, as elections are not yet announced. He also said the party has had a bitter experience forging alliances with the Congress and BJP, and ruled out the possibility of 'Operation Lotus' or 'Operation Hand'.

Surveillance at Maha, Kerala border posts to continue, says official

WEEKEND curfew was imposed last month in districts bordering Kerala and Maharashtra — Dakshina Kannada, Kodagu, Mysuru, Chamarajanagar, Belagavi, Vijayapura, Bidar and Kalaburagi — due to high Covid cases in the two neighbouring states resulting in a surge of cases in these districts in Karnataka.

While the administration in Mysuru, Chamarajanagar and the districts bordering Maharashtra were allowed to lift the weekend curfews earlier, the other districts bordering Kerala had continued with the weekend curfew till Thursday. Udupi, though not bordering Kerala, also saw imposition of weekend curfew, besides Hassan. Data over the last one week indicates that 14 districts across the state have zero per cent positivity rate, six districts between zero and 1 per cent, and 10 districts between 1 and 2 per cent. The order, signed by Chief Secretary and Chairman, State Executive Committee, P Ravi Kumar, takes into consideration the prevailing Covid-19 situation in the state wherein there has been a consistent decline in the case positivity rate. "The state, as a whole, has an average case positivity rate of 0.73 per cent and the districts are having case positivity rate of less than 2 per cent," the orders states.

It, however, also states that to sustain the substantial gains achieved due to "stringent containment measures, there is a need to continue with the existing measures along with focused surveillance, testing-tracking-treatment, vaccination, micro-containment measures and strict adherence to Covid19-appropriate behaviour." Strict surveillance at border posts in places bordering Kerala and Maharashtra is set to continue as per guidelines issued by the Health Department. Besides, the Education Department will issue separate orders with detailed guidelines for opening of primary schools in the districts.

2 use fake gun to rob women on train, held

ENS @ Bengaluru

INSPIRED by a recent Kannada movie which depicted a popular actor wielding a gun, a 28-year-old man purchased a dummy pistol and allegedly used it to rob women passengers on trains.

Three robberies aboard trains were reported in a span of just one week, which were believed to be the handiwork of an alleged gun-wielding gang.

The Bengaluru City Railway Police quickly swung into action and apprehended two suspects -- Ravi Singh, who hails from Bihar, and Sandeep (31) of Uttar Pradesh -- and recovered loot worth Rs 3 lakh.

A senior police officer said the accused would barge into trains which stopped at railway crossings at night. They allegedly threatened passengers with a fake gun before making away with their gold valuables and cash. Based on a tipoff, the police caught the accused when they were heading to a pawnbroker to pledge the stolen gold.

During investigation, the police found that the duo were watching out for coaches with fewer passengers and targeting women sitting closer to the door.

Singh, who is the prime accused, has been living in the city for more than 10 years and speaks Kannada fluently. He was arrested by Subramanyapura police for dacoity four years ago.

Meanwhile, he told police that it was after watching an actor wielding a gun in a Kannada movie that he got the inspiration to purchase a fake gun and plot the train robberies.

"We have video recorded his statement and further investigations are on," police said.

'Will take century to end child labour'

Officials say Covid and school closure have led to kids being trafficked to city for work

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

ONE out of 11 children in India is engaged in some form of child labour and it could take the country 100 years to eradicate child labour completely, said N V Vasudeva Sharma, Nodal Director of Childline 1098 and Executive Director of Child Rights Trust.

He was speaking at a unique workshop, the first such in the country, organised by the Government Railway Police (GRP) and anti-human trafficking NGO Vihaan for personnel of the GRP, Railway Protection Force, Railways and child rights organisations, on prevention of trafficking of children for labour.

Sharma said the data was based on the 2011 census, which specifies that one crore children (5-18 years) were involved in child labour. "There is just a 2.2 per cent decrease in child labour with every passing year in the last decade," he specified.

The Nodal Director said the reality of the numbers was not visible in our surroundings as the whole process of children deployed for labour had gone underground."To avoid detection by cops, those indulging in trafficking now alight at KR Puram or other stations, instead of KSR Bengaluru City, Yesvantpur or Cantonment, where there is a watch for such activities," he said.

Sarita Vaz, member, Chief Welfare Committee, said the loss of employment for parents due to the Covid pandemic, clubbed with the closure of schools, have seen an unprecedented number of children being trafficked for labour. "We are going to face a huge problem in getting them back to school after the pandemic," she added.

Elaborating on the reasons for high prevalence of child labour in Karnataka, ADGP, Railways, Bhaskar Rao said, "Since Bengaluru is an economic hub, children from different parts of the country are being sent here to do menial jobs across industries."

Stray dogs buried alive in Sh'mogga

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Shivamogga

In an inhumane act, about 38-40 stray dogs were allegedly buried alive in Ranganathapura village under Kambadalu-Hosuru gram panchayat in Bhadravathi taluk, Shivamogga district.

According to sources, the incident occurred on September 4 and came to light last Wednesday. An FIR has been filed in this connection acting on a complaint by the Animal Rescue Club of Shivamogga, alleging that 38-40 stray dogs were buried alive.

Speaking to The New Indian Express, Bhadravathi taluk executive officer Ramesh said, "I personally went to the spot and investigated the incident. An inquest report has been submitted."

However, there was no clarity on the issue as some sources claimed that the dogs were poisoned before the burial, while other sources alleged that they were buried alive.

The FIR says that the dogs were buried alive. Villagers have demanded a thorough investigation.

Thamirabarani civilisation 3.2k yrs old: TN CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chennai/Thoothukudi

THE Thamirabarani civilisation dates back 3,200 years, Chief Minister MK Stalin informed the State Assembly on Thursday. This was established by carbon-dating analysis of rice, found in a burial urn in Sivakalai in Thoothukudi district. The findings assume significance at a time when excavations at various places across the State, including at Keezhadi, are revealing evidence of the hoary past of Tamils.

In the backdrop of these findings, Stalin also announced establishing a museum at Tirunelveli at ₹15 crore to display the archaeological artefacts found at the excavation sites in Adichanallur, Sivakalai, and Korkai. The museum would be named Porunai. Further, the Tamil Nadu Archaeological Department will carry out excavations in other States and abroad, in search of the roots of Tamil culture.

"It is the foremost duty of this government to establish that the history of the Indian subcontinent begins from Tamils' landscape, based on scientific evidence," the CM said amid cheers from the members of the House.

"Rice along with husk, found in an offering pot at Sivakalai, were sent for an Accelerator Mass Spectrometry (AMS) Carbon Dating Test at the Beta Analytical Laboratory in Miami, in the USA. The results are quite a revelation to the archaeological community. The carbon dating analysis yielded the date of 1155 BCE, which means people of Sivakalai lived there about 3,200 years ago," Stalin said.

Excavations at Adhichanallur and Korkai had yielded results that they belonged to the 9th and 8th Century BCE, respectively. "With the current findings one can conclude that a matured civilisation existed along the Porunai River (ancient name of Thamirabarani), with Adhichanallur and Sivakalai as habitations and Korkai being the port," he told the House.

Women offer puja and bagina to Goddess Gowri in Mysuru on Thursday | UDAYSHANKAR S

Ch'nagar Gowri temple shuts to avoid crowds

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

THE anticipated third wave of the pandemic and the government guidelines have cast a gloom on the Gowri festival. The only Goddess Gowri temple in Kuderu village of Chamarajanagar district will remain shut to avoid assembly of large crowd.

The 107-year-old Swarna Gowri temple, which is open for just 12 days in a year, is the nucleus of celebration during Gowri festival as women from across the state visit to offer bagina and pray to remain 'Muttaide', an elderly woman whose husband is alive.

Though it is common that people put up pandal to install Ganesha in other parts of the country, in Kuderu village, the villagers install Gowri and organise special pujas for 12 days that attract devotees from Mysuru and Bengaluru as there is no other Gowri temple in the region. Later, the temple priests immerse the idol in a nearby lake.

NIPAH THREAT WANES IN KERALA

22 more suspects test -ve, team visits ground zero

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ T'Puram/Kozhikode

GIVING indications that Nipah infection is waning in the state, 22 more people on the contact list of the boy who had died of the virus in Kozhikode tested negative on Thursday. Sixty-eight of the 274 people on the boy's contact list have tested negative so far. Seven more have shown mild symptoms.

"All people on the contact list are under observation. The virus has a 21-day incubation period. So, those who show symptoms will be tested," said Health Minister Veena George.

The Nipah infection --- reported in 2018 and 2019 --- resurfaced in the state when Muhammed Hasheem from Munnoor near Chathamangalam in Kozhikode tested positive and died on September 5. His contact list included 149 healthcare workers and 47 people from outside the district. The minister said cordoning off of the locality near the boy's house was a containment measure based on Central guidelines.

Veena said two mobile teams have been deployed to collect samples of people with fever in the area. They will be tested for both Nipah and Covid. A Central team stationed in Kozhikode will visit them, said the minister.

A team of experts from the State Institute for Animal Diseases, Thiruvananthapuram, and the animal husbandry department visited Munnoor on Thursday. The team led by Disease Investigation Chief Officer Mini Jose visited the deceased boy's home and surroundings. Samples were collected from bats and bitten rambutan fruits.

Another team from the National Institute of Virology Pune had visited the nearby Kodiyathur panchayat. With the assistance of the forest department, the NIV team will set up traps for live bats to extract samples from them.

A four-member gang dragged a woman returning home with her husband into a field and gang-raped her at knifepoint near Paladugu crossroad in the district on Wednesday night, police said.

The Yanam, Sattenapalli couple was riding a two-wheeler home after attending a function when the knife-wielding gang allegedly waylaid them by blocking the road with logs around 9.30pm. They assaulted the woman's husband and tied him to a tree before dragging her into the nearby fields and raping her. They fled after committing the crime with the couples gold ornaments and cash.

The couple went to Sattenapalli police station past midnight where their statements were recorded. The Sattenapalli police alerted their Medikonduru counterparts, and personnel from both the stations went to the crime scene. Police took the couple to the Government General Hospital, Guntur, where they were treated for injuries.

District police superintendent Jessy Prashanthi and other senior officers visited the scene. Investigating officer and additional SP Gangadhar refused to divulge probe details. The case was registered at Medikonduru police station.

Sources said sniffer dogs pressed into service went to a cold storage on the outskirts of Paladugu village. The cold storage has about 60 workers, and police were interrogating the employees, including eight labourers from Odisha and Vizianagaram, who had joined work recently.

Now, Jaleel denies seeking ED probe

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Kochi

HAVING earned the displeasure of Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan and the CPM over his remarks on the alleged irregularities at the AR Nagar Cooperative Bank, former minister K T Jaleel did a volte-face on Thursday and denied that he had demanded an Enforcement Directorate investigation into unaccounted money held by Muslim League leader P K Kunhalikutty there.

"I didn't demand an ED investigation into the AR Nagar Cooperative Bank-related incident. I know that the state cooperative department is looking into the matter and is satisfied by the inquiry carried out," Jaleel told reporters after coming out of the ED office in Kochi where he submitted evidence in connection with a money laundering case relating to IUML mouthpiece, Chandrika daily.

The LDF MLA arrived at the ED office around 3.45pm and came out around 8.30pm, saying his visit was not linked to the AR Nagar Cooperative Bank-related scam.

"I appeared before ED to give evidence in the money laundering case using the account of Chandrika daily," he said.

He stressed the meeting with Pinarayi earlier in the day was routine.

"I was not called by the Chief Minister. In fact, I regularly meet Pinarayi Vijayan once in two-three weeks or a month. This is a practice followed since the time I was a minister in the previous LDF government. I asked for his appointment on Wednesday and he gave consent to meet on Thursday. There is nothing more to it," Jaleel said.

He claimed that IUML local committees across Kerala had accounts in the AR Nagar Cooperative bank, and when the matter came to the limelight, these accounts were changed to personal accounts.

NIPAH A WARNING SIGN OF KERALA'S ZOONOTIC THREAT

The fact that the reappearance of the Nipah virus and the death of an infected boy took Kerala's health administration by surprise shows how the state had lowered its guard against the deadly contagion despite past experience. Though there has been only one confirmed case so far and as many as 68 samples have tested negative since then, it may be too early to relax considering the nature of the virus and the crucial delay in detecting the infection. The third Nipah outbreak within four years needs to be treated as a warning signal. That Kozhikode Medical College Hospital, one of the top tertiary care hospitals in the state with a history of treating Nipah cases, failed to identify the symptoms in the boy is shocking. As the first case was reported, three ministers and top officials of the health department rushed to Kozhikode for crisis management. This reactionary approach, instead of having a foolproof disease monitoring and warning system, is a major handicap. Kerala, a hotspot for infectious diseases, still lacks an active surveillance mechanism to identify an outbreak. Four decades ago, Kerala set up a cell for the prevention of epidemic and infectious disease by connecting major medical colleges. It helped the state control dengue, Japanese encephalitis and leptospirosis outbreaks. However, the focus waned over the years. It is time to revive the cell and put in place a monitoring system that works 24x7.

The state also needs to consider other factors that make it vulnerable to zoonotic diseases. Increased dependency on animal protein as part of the dietary requirement and widespread encroachment of natural habitats are exposing Kerala to a greater risk of animal-to-human pathogen transfer. The state needs to adopt the 'One Health' approach of the WHO, which recognises that human health is closely connected to the health of animals and the shared environment, thereby helping prevent, detect, contain, eliminate and respond to animal and public health risks. Formation of a zoonotic disease monitoring committee as advised by the National Centre for Disease Control would be another step in the right direction. Certainly, there will be similar outbreaks in the future, but being alert will help us deal with the situation better and prevent possible fatalities.

MARTIAL ARTS FOR A SAFER INDIA

Today is World Suicide Prevention Day. Scan any newspaper or a news channel, you are almost certain to find reports of a suicide in your state. In 2019, as per NCRB, there were 6,465 suicide cases in the state of Andhra Pradesh. A substantial number of them were women. The actual figures could be higher than reported and similar is the case with violence against women. Some take solace in the fact that the number of these crimes or suicides is relatively less than in other countries. Such an attitude is akin to that of an ostrich.

The reasons for these unfortunate incidents are varied. Society rises in rightful indignation sometimes when its conscience stings as in the case of Nirbhaya—only for the powers-that-be to enact new laws. In no time, it is back to business. What could possibly be the solution then? Something that can prove transformative? One approach is to start from the grassroots, which calls for a paradigm shift in the way children are brought up. Under the Samagra Shiksha Scheme, self-defence classes are to be conducted for girls from Class VI to Class XII. These classes, if at all being taken in schools, are currently useless. We suggest the government take a leaf out of Japan where martial arts are taught in high schools. Even as we negotiate our way through the Covid pandemic, we can introduce martial arts in schools and colleges. In the name of Covid, even physical education classes have been withdrawn. This is absurd. If 20 students can be accommodated in a class, surely, they can be in a playground.

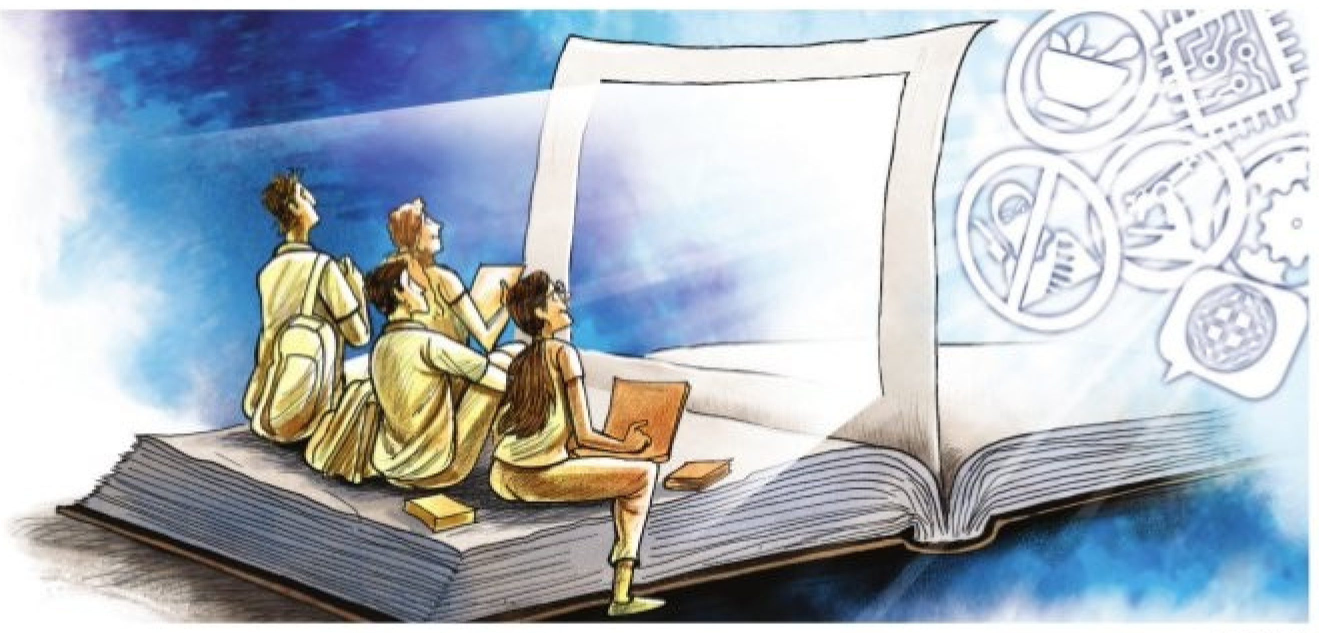
Students trained in martial arts develop self-discipline, confidence, focus, a never-give-up attitude, emotional balance, honour, respect and become physically and mentally fit as well as truly Nirbhai. Women's empowerment begins with women themselves being fighting fit. Martial arts trainers, who are struggling to make ends meet, have a lot to offer. Let each school and college have a trainer. A few years down the line, it can reduce violence against women and also have an impact on suicide rates. The martial way holds the key for a fit Bharat.

Despite the controversy that is being whipped up in some quarters about the counter terrorism course, this is something that needs to be taken up by other universities

TIME TO EMULATE THE NEW JNU

A SURYA PRAKASH

Former Chairman, Prasar Bharati and Scholar, Democracy Studies



AMIT BANDRE

What is wrong with an Indian university offering a course in counter terrorism and seeking to equip its students with in-depth understanding of the challenges that the country has to face as a result of terror and of the measures needed to combat it?

In fact, this is the central issue confronting all democracies in the world, and there are any number of examples of how this is very complex when the authorities seek to tackle this problem without losing sight of the fundamental principles enshrined in their constitutions.

That is why the recent decision of the Academic Council of Jawaharlal Nehru University to approve three new courses—Counter Terrorism, Asymmetric Conflicts and Strategies for Cooperation among Major Powers; India's Emerging World View in the 21st Century; and Significance of Science and Technology in International Relations—for the final year of the five-year dual degree programme in the school of engineering is of much significance. After their four-year B.Tech Course, these students enrol for a one-year MS programme in subjects related to humanities, social sciences, languages, international relations, management, science and engineering.

Yet, the counter terrorism course is under attack from the usual suspects—left-leaning intellectuals—who just do not want JNU to emerge as the hub of innovation in higher education and offer new courses to meet the development needs of Naya Bharat.

The JNU decision is in tune with the National Education Policy, which has laid much-needed emphasis on multidisciplinary and holistic education. Students in different courses must have an opportunity to choose from an a la carte menu of subjects while retaining their core interest.

These three are just a few of many imaginative courses introduced by JNU in recent years while breaking down the age-old barriers between the humanities and sciences. This approach has given students a wide range of options so that there is value addition to their degrees.

Despite the controversy that is being whipped up in some quarters about the counter terrorism course, this is something that needs to be taken up by many other universities in the country because of the unique position of India in the comity of nations. As the world's largest democracy and as a nation that is proud of its diversity, India has a special responsibility to ensure that democracy and diversity flourish in this country. This can happen only if young citizens are trained to identify and counter ideologies that seek to harm the country's democratic traditions.

Explaining the importance of this course, Dr Jagadesh Kumar, vice chancellor of JNU, has said that given the challenges emanating from terrorism to national security, and the emerging situation in India's neighbourhood, it is imperative that such an academic institution takes the lead to build a good set of counter terrorism specialists.

The purpose of the course is to develop in-depth knowledge of various global and regional terrorist networks as part of the course. The vice chancellor is clear that the rise of fundamentalism and radicalisation "through perverse ideologies" in the neighbourhood is a matter of great concern and calls for effective counter strategies.

There is a major expansion in the academic programmes available in JNU and it is in line with the new thinking in higher education the world over. As a result, there is so much in the university's new academic menu for other institutions of higher education in the country to pick up and follow

Further, countering terrorism is not just the job of security agencies. Given the fact that terrorist networks across the world are using technology for their deadly pursuits and to attract fresh recruits, there is a need for specialised courses that enable students with a strong technology background to understand the politics and sociology of terror and acquire other skills like intelligence gathering.

The country's left-leaning intellectuals, who have viewed JNU as their adda for many decades and ensured its intellectual stagnation, have been consistently targeting Dr Kumar, ever since his appointment in 2016. Their objections to the counter terrorism course is no surprise because of the Left's dalliance with radical Islam.

However, Dr Kumar has weathered every challenge and ensured that none of this will hamper his dynamism and commitment to lead the university away from the morass it has been in, towards a modern, relevant and holistic academic environment. Many of these initiatives ensure an interdisciplinary approach. For example, the B.Tech students can opt for an MS in Korean or Japanese studies in the fifth year. The university is also offering courses that combine computer science and sociology and Ayurveda and Biology.

Also planned is a special centre on disaster management that offers courses to students from engineering, medicine and other related streams. Among its future plans are a School of Medicine that integrates modern medicine and ancient Indian systems of medicine and a state-of-the-art research centre to study rare diseases in collaboration with the Indian Council of Medical Research and the All India Institute of Medical Sciences.

As can be seen, there is a major expansion in the academic programmes available in JNU and it is in line with the new thinking in higher education the world over. As a result, there is so much in the university's new academic menu for other institutions of higher education in the country to pick up and follow, and this certainly includes counter terrorism. So it is time to emulate JNU!

WORKING TOWARDS PREVENTING SUICIDES IN INDIA

DR AISHWARIYA JHA

Psychiatry Resident, NIMHANS, Bengaluru

DR DEBANJAN BANERJEE

Consulting Geriatric Psychiatrist, Kolkata

"Sometimes we look for hope, even at the end of times. The search is desperate and the struggle is true."

We may remember hearing something along these lines from someone close to us whom we lost to suicide years ago. And if this has got you wondering, let us clarify. This person may not have had a psychiatric illness, a term that is invariably and irrevocably linked to every suicide.

India has the highest suicide rate in the Southeast Asian region, according to the World Health Organization (WHO). For more perspective, suicide is responsible for more deaths than malaria, breast cancer, war or even homicide. It is, in fact, the most common cause of death in Indian adolescents/youth, with numerous lives lost prematurely to this social evil. Increasing conversations on mental health may be gradually advancing our understanding of the medical aspects of suicide, but there remains much to understand about it in the broader social realm.

Whenever there is news of suicide anywhere, we may be used to hearing phrases like "Oh, surely they were depressed" or "Zarur dimaag mein kuch chal raha tha". Oftentimes, we assume or attempt to decipher the causation of suicide in these individuals while subconsciously distancing ourselves. And while it is true that mental illness is the fundamental driver of suicide at the individual level, the problem with viewing suicide as solely an individual problem or as having a unidirectional relationship with mental illness is that we may be minimising the impact of social issues on the individual. This has become the common theme of public conversation as well as media perception, which may be reductionistic and harmful in our effort towards prevention as a society.

Let us provide an example from our background. A medical student who had been obligated to take up the stream due to the wishes of his family faced tremendous difficulties with the academic rigour of subjects he never wanted. He may choose to end his life someday, being consistently pushed against the wall. To what would we attribute his crisis then: depression and stress, or his unheard voice and unrealistic family expectations?

Viewing suicide as an individual crisis, where a person snaps one fine day, undermines the immense preventive potential. In fact, most suicides can be avoided if timely action is taken.

Do we overlook the impact of poverty, loss of employment, loss or lack of housing, disabilities, domestic abuse, elder abuse, easy access to pesticides, alcohol abuse and migration when discussing the factors leading up to suicide? And is it really fair to assume that only genetic predispositions and clinical depression would lead to suicide?

Emile Durkheim examined the sociological aspects of suicide and proposed that the risk of suicide in a population increases when the social context fails to provide a healthy sense of purpose or belonging.

Some examples of social forces causing psychological distress may be the transition from one social role to another—moving away for college, becoming a parent, having your firstborn move out or retiring from office and the stress around common socio-cultural beliefs and practices such as inter-caste marriages, pregnancy, the beliefs around the gender of the baby and postpartum traditions.

Suicide prevention entails far more than increasing the number of psychiatrists or prescription medication. It requires strengthening of communities and social ties, providing escape routes from abusive relationships ... Emile Durkheim proposed that the risk of suicide in a population increases when the social context fails to provide a healthy sense of purpose or belonging

In times of the pandemic, stress due to social isolation, loneliness, distance learning, loss of employment and lack of basic needs, especially among the underprivileged classes, is also becoming increasingly common. The risks of suicide have also thus increased, though we still lack systematic data from India.

Financial issues, examinations, disharmony at home and interpersonal conflicts are commonly known to lead to distress; however, the stress of not being able to live up to the expectations of self or others, the stress of uncertainty, sexual health concerns, bullying, criminal charges and feelings of shame and guilt may also play significant roles in suicide causation.

Then suicide can be a culmination of the loss of regulatory forces, a thwarted belonging of the self, interpersonal conflict and separation, or the loss of a role or belonging. Suicide can also be due to the availability of lethal means among people already at risk. In the age of the internet, the virtual world can sometimes be the medium through which information of such means are sought and at other times could be the reason itself, such as in the case of cyberbullying, online fraudulent practices, suicide pacts and games or challenges aimed at self-harm. Additionally, there is increasing evidence that social media can influence suicide-related behaviour.

These risks are compounded by stigma, other barriers associated with help-seeking, socio-cultural beliefs and flawed media portrayals of suicide. The WHO and Press Council of India (PCI) have clearly set guidelines of media reporting in cases of suicide, which are but rarely practiced.

So, what can be done? These realities imply that suicide prevention entails far more than increasing the number of psychiatrists or prescription medication. Suicide prevention requires economic development, financial assistance, strengthening of communities and social ties, providing moral support and escape routes from abusive relationships and recognising those in need and helping them seek professional help. Right from individuals to administration, it's a collective responsibility.

Suicide affects society and all the people in it. A single death by suicide causes a ripple effect that goes on to deeply impact all the people tied to that individual. People who die of suicide are not heroes, they are not cowards and they are not criminals. Informed perspectives can guide the conversations around suicides. These conversations should not be limited to World Suicide Prevention Days or World Mental Health Days. These conversations are not intended to be exotic or scandalous. Let us be realistic as well as empathetic in saving lives.

Kudos to Stalin

This is with reference to House cites secularism, passes anti-CAA resolution (Sep 9). Kudos to Tamil Nadu CM M K Stalin for passing the anti-CAA resolution in the Assembly and requesting the Modi government at the Centre to repeal the Citizenship Amendment Act as it would lead to a Hindu-Muslim divide. At the same time, the AIADMK has blatantly proved that it is not for secularism by skipping the vote for the resolution.

Polls and protests

The editorial Need to find middle ground to resolve farmers' agitation (Sep 9) makes a timely appeal to both agitators and the government to climb down. The timing of the recent rise in protests after a lull may be attributed to the UP elections that are nearing. Farmers may have thought the government could be arm-twisted but the Centre appears confident that the agitation will have no impact on the BJP's prospects in the polls. It is now a question of who blinks first. Unfortunately, others will be forced to endure the inconvenience caused to them.

Illegal act in heart of city

It is shocking to learn that illegal mining near the mouth of Cooum river has been taking place in the heart of Chennai for the past year unnoticed by the authorities concerned (Cooum sand mined illegally off Marina, Sep 7). It is imperative to stop this illegal act forthwith to save the coastal ecosystem and also the buildings that use this substandard sand. The offenders should be brought to book.

Yoga break much-needed

The Central government's attempt to promote a five-minute break for yoga in government offices is a sagacious step. It will help employees and also enhance efficiency. Practices including deep breathing can help. Yoga confers spiritual, mental and physical strength and helps tap the infinite power within the body that is capable of bringing peace and harmony.

Unity just a pretence

This is with reference to Why Dalit-Muslim electoral unity is a mirage (Sep 8). The author convincingly establishes his point by citing the predicament faced by Dalit leader Jogendranath Mandal, one of the founding fathers of Pakistan, who was forced to flee to India. The unity is just a pretence for communalists who are trying to create a wedge in Hindu society.

Allow dine-in

Now that the Kerala government has withdrawn the complete lockdown on Sundays and the night curfew, the government should allow the hotels and restaurants to resume the dine-in facility that remains suspended for a very long period now. At present, they are allowed to deliver only parcel food. This is unfortunate as all other commercial establishments such as shops can function normally by following Covid protocol. It may be noted that when the first lockdown was partially withdrawn last year, hotels were allowed to function normally with strict adherence to Covid norms.

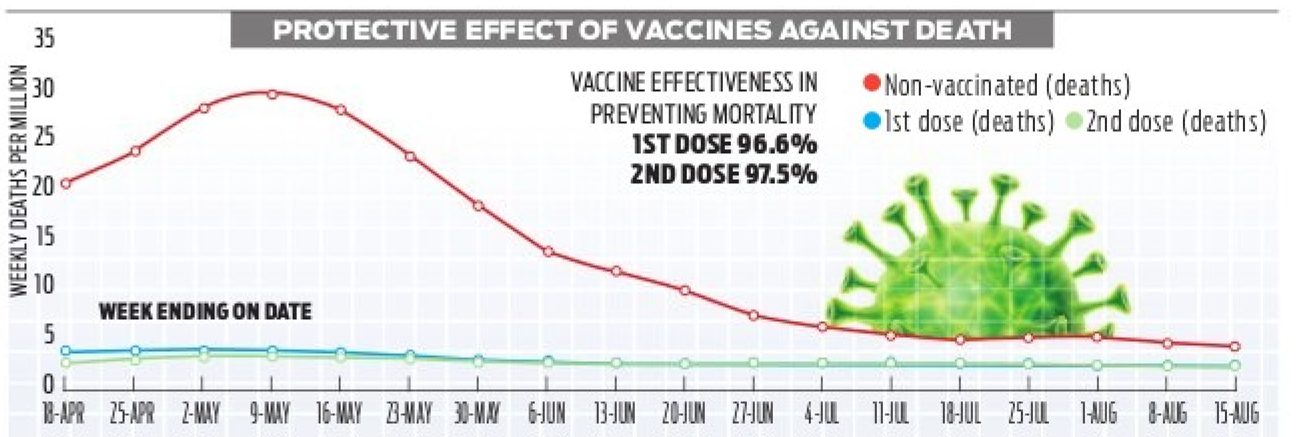
First dose reduces mortality risk by at least 96%, reveals Centre data

Coming soon, tracker to access weekly updates on vaccine effectiveness and death figures



SUMI SUKANYA DUTTA @ New Delhi

THE Central government is set to launch a Covid-19 vaccine tracker that will allow users to access weekly updates related to vaccine effectiveness and death figures among all age groups with or without inoculations.

Announcing this at a briefing by the health ministry, Balram Bhargava, ICMR director general, said data from April 18 to August 16 shows that vaccines lowered the risk of mortality by 96.6% after the first dose and 97.5% after the second.

"The tracker will be up on the health ministry's website in a few days," said Bhargava. The tracker, he explained, will synergise data from CoWIN (portal used for booking vaccination slots), ICMR's national Covid testing database and the national Covid-19 portal (maintained by the health ministry).

It will show the mortality due to Covid-19 trifurcated into segments — non-vaccinated, vaccinated with one dose and fully vaccinated and later, even the number of breakthrough infections and reinfections.

Citing data from the website which is still under construction, Bhargava pointed out that on May 9, a majority of the people who died of Covid-19 in a group analysed had not received even one dose of the vaccine. It also depicted that 1.87% people who died on this day were vaccinated with one dose, while 1.1% of the people who succumbed to the Covid-19 infection were fully vaccinated.

"Vaccine effectiveness in preventing mortality. One dose stood at 96.6% whereas vaccine effectiveness in preventing mortality with two doses stood at 97.5%," said Bhargava.

Union Health Secretary Rajesh Bhushan said that the tracker will show vaccine coverage in the adult population with the first dose and the second dose. For example, the data shows that on August 15, total vaccine coverage was 44.63%, out of which 31.9% received the first jab while 12.37% got the second shot.

As on Thursday morning, over 72 crore vaccine doses had been administered in the country and while 58% of the total adult population in India has now received at least one dose of vaccine, 18% in the category are fully vaccinated.

Details shared in the press conference also showed that there are 38 districts reporting over 100 daily cases, while the number of districts reporting over 10% positivity is also the same. For the country, test positivity rate has been under 3% for the last 10 weeks even though the situation in Kerala, the only state with over 1 lakh active cases, continues to be a cause for serious concern.

Shah holds high-level meet to discuss J&K security situation

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

HOME Minister Amit Shah held a high-level security meet on Thursday to discuss the security situation in Jammu & Kashmir following recent developments in Afghanistan. Concerns about growth of radicalisation and possible rise in infiltration was discussed, sources said.

National Security Advisor Ajit Doval, RAW secretary Samant Goel, Director of Intelligence Bureau Arvinda Kumar, Home Secretary Ajay Kumar Bhalla, Lieutenant General of J&K Manoj Sinha, chiefs of paramilitary forces Pankaj Singh (BSF), Kuldip Singh (CRPF) and Dilbag Singh, Director General of J&K Police attended the meeting.

Apart from the Taliban takeover, a comprehensive anti-drone strategy and misuse of social media from across the border are among issues discussed in nearly three hours. Sources said Shah discussed reports of increasing radicalisation in Kashmir.

There are reports that radicalisation is growing in south Kashmir, especially in areas like Sopore, Shopian and downtown Srinagar city. This is the first security meeting chaired by Shah after Kabul fell to the Taliban on August 15.

Also discussed at the meet was the political and security implications in the Valley following the death of hardline Hurriyat Conference chairman Syed Ali Shah Geelani.

About reports of radicalisation in the Valley, Sinha said the security situation is continuously under watch. "Restrictions were imposed after Geelani passed away, but now they are lifted and the first Friday after Geelani's death has passed peacefully."

A top security official said, "The situation in Afghanistan has emboldened terror groups in the Valley. We are monitoring the situation. There are no confirmed reports of increased radical activities but Pakistan is at an advantageous position with Taliban storming to power. It may intensify efforts to create trouble."

According to official statistics, 82 persons have gone missing this year and security agencies suspect they have joined terror groups. As per home ministry sources, around 200 terrorists are active in Kashmir, most belonging to Jaish-e-Mohammad and Lashkar-e-Taiba.

US for unity on Af talks

New Delhi: External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar virtually participated in a meeting on Afghanistan organised jointly by the US and Germany. The meeting was called by US Secretary of State Antony Blinken, who is on a tour of Germany, and his German counterpart Heiko Maas. "Blinken urged unity in mitigating a potential humanitarian crisis and in holding the Taliban accountable on counterterrorism, on allowing safe passage for foreign citizens and Afghans who want to leave, and on forming an inclusive government that respects basic rights. Participants agreed on the importance of remaining united in their enduring support for the people of Afghanistan," US State Department spokesperson Ned Price said. Blinken said the US will continue to try and support the rights of the Afghan people.

Kishor's Cong entry unlikely before polls

RICHA SHARMA @New Delhi

ANY decision on poll strategist Prashant Kishor's induction to the Congress has seemingly been put on hold following reservations by senior party leaders and feedback that his lateral entry at a senior position can bring discontent in the party ahead of Assembly elections early next year.

Following meetings with Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, there were reports that Kishor is expected to join in a top opposition to revamp the party.

Sources said several senior leaders, including Congress Working Committee members, as part of the feedback process initiated by Congress chief Sonia Gandhi, did not give a positive response to Kishor — who runs I-PAC — joining the party. The 'rebel' G23 letter writers are also against inducting him.

"There was a broad view that he can be roped in as a strategist for the party but giving him top post for election management can lead to rifts in the party. Any decision is now expected after Assembly elections in five states. The Congress chief is yet to express her views on the issue, while Rahul and Priyanka have backed him," said a senior party leader.

The party was considering creating a position for him, giving him a free hand in planning election strategy for the Congress. By roping in Kishor, the party was mainly looking for revival ahead of the 2024 Lok Sabha elections.

Rahul visits Vaishno Devi

As BJP started a public outreach programme in J&K, Rahul Gandhi set off on a second trip to the region in as many months. This tour is mostly about temple and mosque hopping. More such trips are in the pipeline.

Rahul went to the Mata Vaishno Devi shrine in Katra, participated in the evening aarti and other rituals with a night halt scheduled at the venue.

He took short breaks on the way to the shrine to interact with other devotees.

IAF aircraft landing stretch cut out of highway inaugurated

MAYANK SINGH @Barmer/Jaisalmer

ADDING to military infrastructure for emergency use for aircraft operations, Defence Minister Rajnath Singh and Minister for Road Transport and Highways Nitin Gadkari on Thursday inaugurated a stretch of National Highway which has been developed into an Emergency Landing Field (ELF). This is on NH-925 in Gandhav Bhakasar Section, south of Barmer in Rajasthan. It will be used for emergency operations on the western borders with Pakistan.

A Hercules C-130J plane of the Indian Air Force, carrying the two ministers and Chief of Defence Staff Bipin Rawat, conducted a mock emergency landing on the field. NH-925 is India's first National Highway to be used for emergency landing of IAF aircraft.

The defence minister said 20 emergency landing strips are being developed across the country. "Many helipads are also being created with the help of the Union roads ministry. This is an important step to strengthen our security infrastructure," Rajnath said.

ELF is a 3 km section of the Satta-Gandhav stretch of NH-925A and part of the newly developed Gandhav Bakhasar Section. Its length is 196.97 km and it has been constructed at a cost of ₹765.52 crore under Bharatmala Pariyojana. In normal times, the ELF will be used like any other National Highway. During operations of IAF, an adjoining service road will be used for traffic purposes.

Equations changing: Rajnath

Later, after commissioning the first squadron of the first medium-range surface-to-air missile in Jaisalmer, Rajnath said, "South China Sea, Indian Ocean region, Indo-Pacific region or Central Asia, we can see uncertainty everywhere. Current developments in Afghanistan is one such example. Amid this changing global scenario, equations between nations are also changing quickly." This is affecting trade, economy and security scenario, he said.

SC rejects plea on NEET centre change option

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Thursday dismissed a plea seeking direction to the Central government to provide a centre change option for NEET 2021 for post-graduate courses and to postpone NEET till the option is allowed. A bench headed by Justice UU Lalit declined to entertain the petition, which said students from Kerala would have to travel to New Delhi to appear in the exam. "There are no restrictions now as such. If you go to any airport these days, all flight are booked. People are travelling from Delhi to Madras, Delhi to Kochi. Flights to and from Kerala are operating. Life is going on," the court remarked.

World powers look to Delhi for Af strategy

BALA CHAUHAN
@Bengaluru

AFTER being snubbed in the Troika meetings for a peaceful resolution in Afghanistan, where India has been a longstanding stakeholder of peace and stability, New Delhi is now being approached by world powers to help secure their interests, given the new reality of the Taliban takeover in Afghanistan and China's blatant hegemonic overtures in the heart of Asia.

The back-to-back visits by top Intelligence and Security chiefs — Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) chief William Burns, Russian National Security Adviser Gen. Nikolai Patrushev and British Intelligence (MI6) chief Richard Moore to New Delhi — to meet India's National Security Adviser (NSA) Ajit Doval speak about India's growing clout, not only in the region, but in the emerging geostrategic realignment. The key topics of discussion in the NSA's meetings with the MI6, CIA chiefs and the Russian security official have centred around the developments in Afghanistan, and the possible spillover of terrorism from Afghan soil to their countries.

"The entry of China on the stage of this great game makes India a leading contender as a frontline state in the decade ahead," said defence and strategic analyst Col Danveer Singh Chauhan (retd). "India shares good relations with all the countries who share common Afghanistan concerns. Countries like the US, the UK, Russia, Iran, Saudi Arabia, Qatar and the Central Asian Republics are rattled by the Taliban's takeover, but differences amongst themselves prevent them from coming together for a common strategy. India, on the other hand, shares good relations with all these countries. Hence, it is New Delhi's turn to play a major role, without committing troops on the ground, in containing terrorism emanating from Afghanistan and also checkmating China's growing hegemony in the country," he added.

"Doha's ambitions go beyond just helping the US, in facilitating talks with the Taliban and subsequently assisting them in evacuation from Kabul. Qatar wants to be seen as a mediator for all those who aim to engage the Taliban, and it has certainly done so in the past few weeks. But it also needs to balance this role with its fragile relations with other Arab countries in the region. Given that it is already perceived as too close to Islamist groups in the region, Qatar will have to manage this mediation position carefully," explained Col Chauhan (retd).

"Controlling the Kabul airport allows Turkey to regulate what comes in and out of Afghanistan in terms of aid. In the unfolding scenario, for India, it is important that we carefully watch the evolving situation. Her sway beyond the Hindu Kush depends on this very strategic patience," said the strategic expert.

BJP readies volunteers to push social agenda

MANISH ANAND @New Delhi

WHILE BJP has faced criticism for being a 'round the year election machinery', the saffron outfit is seeking to give a major push to its social agenda, readying four lakh health volunteers across the country along with Poshan Abhiyan (nutrition mission). Under the watch of BJP chief J P Nadda, national office-bearers are tuning in to the social agenda in a big way, as Union Home Minister Amit Shah helms the political tasks of the outfit.

Seeking to gain from the experiences of two waves of the Covid-19 pandemic, BJP is roping in two volunteers each in about two lakh villages across the country who will be trained to act as intermediaries during healthcare needs of people in the rural parts. Additionally, the women's wing of BJP has been asked to focus on the nutrition mission and tend to the needs of women and children in rural areas to help achieve the aim of reducing maternal and infant mortality rates.

Nadda is learnt to be focussing on the social agenda during his virtual conferences with party functionaries from states and the national office-bearers. This is in addition to the outfit taking up the Garib Kalyan agenda in which party workers distribute ration kits to the poor.

"Volunteers who reached out to help people affected by the pandemic are being enlisted for a regular role in rural areas. Out of over 6.70 lakh volunteers associated with the party, four lakh have been enlisted as health volunteers, who will be trained by the Chikashtak Koshtha (doctors' cell) of the BJP in basic health works," said a senior BJP functionary.

BJP national general secretary D Purandeswari, while speaking to this newspaper, said the social agenda of the party is in line with Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision that the aim of coming to power is to serve the people.

"Experience gained during the two waves will form the background for the works of the health volunteers, who will act as the first line of assistance for people in villages for healthcare needs and also in times of medical emergencies," said the functionary.

RS bypolls on October 4

New Delhi: The Election Commission on Thursday decided to hold bypolls in seven Rajya Sabha seats. Two are in Tamil Nadu. The rest are in West Bengal, Assam, Maharashtra, Puducherry and MP. By-polls will be held on October 4. The seat in Madhya Pradesh fell vacant after Union minister Thaawarchand Gehlot was posted as Karnataka governor. Seats in Tamil Nadu fell vacant due to the resignation of AIADMK leaders KP Munusamy and R Vaithilingam, who are now members of the TN Assembly. The West Bengal seat fell vacant after the resignation of TMC minister Manas Ranjan Bhunia.

Operationalisation of 50 routes. 30 by October 2021

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

UNION Civil Aviation Minister Jyotiraditya Scindia on Thursday unveiled a 100-day plan comprising policy measures and development of airports along with heliports. Under the plan, new airports will come up in four cities.

Scindia said 50 new routes will be launched under regional connectivity scheme in 100 days. The minister also announced a policy for maintenance, repair and overhaul (MRO) activities to attract more investment. The 100-day plan has been prepared after combined consultations focusing on 16 areas including infrastructure development, policy and reforms.

Of the 50 new routes, the minister said 30 will be operational by October-end. They will be operated by Alliance Air (6), IndiGo (4), Big Charter Private Limited (8), SpiceJet (4) and Star Air (8). Besides, the ministry will also operationalise five airports. The minister said foundation stones of four new airports will be laid in Agartala, Kushinagar, Jewar in Greater Noida and a second terminal building at Dehradun. "First would be Kushinagar (UP). It'll have the capacity for landing of Airbus 321 and Boeing 737 flights. Kushinagar will become the focal point of the Buddhist circuit," he added.

The government is also planning to update the AirSewa app, where passengers can seek redressal of grievances. AirSewa 3.0 is scheduled to go live by September 30. On new policies, Scindia said the aim is to make India a "global MRO hub". The purpose of the policy that includes leasing of land through open tenders and abolishing royalty charged by airport authorities is to attract investment.

CPI(M) offices, houses of party workers vandalised across Tripura

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @Guwahati

MORE than two dozen offices of the CPI(M) and two media houses came under attack allegedly by workers of the ruling BJP in Tripura.

The statewide attacks that began on Wednesday morning continued into the wee hours of Thursday. A number of vehicles, mostly two-wheelers, were set ablaze. Four people have been arrested in connection with the incidents.

The CPI(M) condemned the attacks and sought Prime Minister Narendra Modi's intervention.

"We draw your attention to the outrageous violence let loose on the CPI(M) and the Left Front in Tripura yesterday. In a pre-planned fashion, scores of offices of the CPI(M), including the state headquarters, were attacked by mobs of BJP workers," Yechuri wrote in a letter to the Prime Minister.

He said the most brazen attack was on the state committee office in Agartala in which the assailants ransacked the building, set fire to two office cars and broke the bust of Dasarath Deb, a "revered leader of the people of Tripura".

Yechuri also wrote that houses of many party leaders and activists were attacked, ransacked or set on fire. He highlighted the attack on "Daily Desharkatha", a media house supported by CPI(M).

He alleged that the police, who were present near many of the sites that came under attack, remained silent bystanders. In the case of state committee office, he said some CRPF jawans were present in front of the building, but were withdrawn an hour before the attack began.

"The impunity with which the attackers operated shows the connivance of the state government. These attacks took place because the ruling party tried and failed to suppress the activities of the main opposition party in the state," the CPI(M) general secretary further wrote.

He said it was evident from the attacks that the state government had grossly failed in discharging its constitutional responsibility of maintaining law and order.

Petitioners claim mosque constructed by Aurangzeb

"IT is to be regretted that the court below departed from this traditional way in the present case and chose to examine the question himself... Judicial enthusiasm should not obliterate the profound responsibility that is expected from the Court," the HC said.

On April 8, 2021, the Varanasi court had directed the ASI director-general to get a comprehensive archaeological survey of the entire Gyanvapi compound done. The order was based on a petition seeking restoration of the mosque land to the Hindus.

The petitioners claimed the mosque was built by Mughal emperor Aurangzeb in 1664 after demolishing a portion of the ancient temple.

The matter later reached the Allahabad HC in the form of a writ petition.

Won't be bullied, asserts minister on Karnal protest

State home minister says he is ready to order an impartial probe against former SDM; actions of farmers will also be examined

Farmers during their sit-in protest in Karnal on Thursday | PTI

On day-three of the farmers' dharna in Karnal demanding action against the then Sub Divisional Magistrate (SDM) Ayush Sinha, state home minister Anil Vij on Thursday said while the government was ready to hold an inquiry into the lathi-charge, it would not give in to pressure tactics.

The suspension of mobile Internet services in the district was extended till Thursday midnight as the impasse seemed likely to extend, with the farmers staying firm on their demand for action against Sinha. "The government is ready for an impartial probe, but this will not be confined to only former Karnal SDM Ayush Sinha, but the entire episode. If farmers or their leaders are found guilty, then whatever action is deemed fit will be taken," said Vij.

Referring to demands of suspending the 2018 batch IAS officer, Vij said, "We cannot hang anyone just because someone says so. Are Indian Penal Code (IPC) and the farmers' IPC different? It cannot be like this. Punishment is always given according to the offence committed. To find out the offence, a probe has to be conducted."

Vij categorically said the government would heed only to genuine demands of farmers, but added negotiations are on. "We respect the farmers' right to protest. Our officials are regularly holding talks with them. Dialogue is an integral part of democracy," the state home minister said.

Farmer leader and BKU Haryana president Gurnam Singh Chaduni said no official outreach happened on Thursday, while Wednesday's talks were inconclusive. He said the dharna would continue till their demands were met, and added SKM leaders would hold a meeting in Karnal on September 11 to chalk out their course of action.

While Chaduni stood firm in his demand for the suspension of the IAS officer, Karnal Deputy Commissioner Nishant Kumar Yadav insisted on talks. "We invited them for talks, but they are adamant on Sinha's suspension. We told them there are rules to follow before acting against any official. Without an investigation, no official can be suspended," he said.

AFTER BOAT COLLISION, ASSAM TO BEGIN WORK ON PENDING BRIDGE

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Guwahati

A day after a collision between two boats left one person dead and two missing, the state government on Thursday announced it would begin constructing a bridge on Brahmaputra to connect Majuli island with Jorhat in November. The announcement came five years after Union Minister for Road Transport & Highways Nitin Gadkari laid the foundation for the bridge.

Chief Minister Himanta Biswa Sarma on Thursday made the announcement during his visit to Neamatighat in Jorhat, where a collision between two ferries on Wednesday left a 28-year-old woman dead. She was a college lecturer in Majuli. Soon after the mishap, it was feared that 90 aboard a boat had drowned, but later 87 were confirmed safe. The Assam State Disaster Management Authority said fate of two is yet to be known.

Meanwhile, Sarma said it would take four years to build the bridge. He said a Group of Ministers would be formed to review the progress. Gadkari had laid the foundation ahead of the 2016 Assam elections.

The CM, who monitored the search operation for about 45 minutes from a machine boat, said a criminal case would be registered. He said three officials of Inland Water Transport (IWT) Department were suspended and the government would institute a high-level inquiry into the accident. He announced the plying of all private ferries would be stopped forthwith as they were not equipped with marine engines. "If the owners wish to convert the single engine to marine engines, the state government would provide a grant of ₹10 lakh with 75% subsidy," Sarma said. He said while four IWT ferries would provide service between Kamalabari in Majuli and Neamatighat, while two more would be sent to Majuli. Two Ro-Pax ferries would also be operationalised, he said.

The Congress, however, slammed the government stating no provision of safety was made aboard the boats. "Has the IWT Department properly marked the navigation routes or not? Who is monitoring the load?" the Congress asked.

4 J&K journos to be arrested after collection of evidence

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Srinagar

A day after police raided residences of four journalists, seized their laptops and mobiles, and questioned them in a police station, Inspector General of Police (IGP), Kashmir, Vijay Kumar said police would arrest the four after collecting evidence.

A police spokesman said – Mir Hilal, Shah Abbas, Azhar Qadri, and Showkat Motta – were questioned on Wednesday in connection with a case registered at the Kothibagh police station. Of the four, Hilal, Abbas and Qadri contribute to international media organisations, while Motta is the editor of local news magazine, The Narrator.

"During investigation, credible evidence was found of their links to the mastermind of the blog kashmirfight@wordpress.com," a police spokesman said. The website, kashmirfight.wordpress.com, is accused of making threatening posts against journalists. It is blocked in the country.

In 2018, police claimed the website, operated from Pakistan, was behind a vicious campaign that led to assassination of senior journalist and Srinagar-based newspaper Rising Kashmir's founding-editor Shujaat Bukhari. In July last, police arrested five persons, including an officer of the Srinagar Municipal Corporation, his daughter and son-in-law for running the "terror web portal". The spokesman said for the purpose of investigation, all the four journalists were called for questioning and allowed to go in the evening. "They have been directed to present themselves on Friday," he added.

"So far, various numbers from Pakistan, Turkey and Saudi have been found. Besides, they are found to have been in contact with various virtual numbers," he said. IGP, Kashmir, Vijay Kumar said the four persons would be arrested once evidence is collected.

Demands in J&K to restore Resident Certificates

Talking to TNIE, Shafiq said the demand to restore Article 35A, which granted special privileges to J&K residents and barred outsiders from purchasing land, is political in nature. ENS

RCP Singh and loyalists ousted from JD(U) panel

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @Patna

A recent revamp of the JD(U)'s northeast executive council saw former party president and current Union minister R C P Singh and his loyalists getting dropped from the panel.

The surprise decision lays bare the simmering tension between Singh and current JD(U) national president Rajiv Ranjan, a party leader said, adding: "Singh and Rajiv never shared a cordial relationship."

Sources said Rajiv, who had been sore ever since losing a Union Cabinet berth to Singh, removed the latter's supporters from state headquarters post, too. Notable ousters on Thursday were that of state general secretaries Anil Kumar and Chandan Singh, both of whom were tasked with spadework as their stint as headquarters in-charge was largely seen as a reward for their loyalty to Singh.

RCP Singh

During Tuesday's meeting to discuss party strategy for Manipur elections, Rajiv removed Singh and his loyalist Sanjay Verma (in-charge of northeastern states) from the council, while inducting WRD minister Sanjay K Jha as a core member. Prominent among the old guards to escape the axing was national general secretary K C Tyagi.

Sources claimed the relations between Rajiv and Singh worsened recently when the latter's supporters stuck posters in the party headquarters with the former's image missing.

While the posters were removed after their supporters locked horns, the damage had been done, sources added. Party leaders claimed Rajiv and chairman of party's Parliamentary board Upendra Kushwaha share a good rapport and the rejig is part of their attempts to dominate the party affairs.

Uttarakhand withdraws SC petition on Yatra

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Dehradun

AFTER the Uttarakhand High Court refused to intervene to allow Char Dham Yatra to go ahead, the state government has decided to withdraw its special leave petition (SLP) from the Supreme Court.

The High Court refused to intervene citing that the matter was still pending before the Supreme Court.

Earlier this week, advocate general made an oral request to the bench of the Chief Justice of the Uttarakhand High Court to allow Char Dham Yatra.

"An application has been submitted in the honorable Supreme Court for withdrawl of the SLP," said one of the lawyers from the state government's legal team.

The decision comes amid demands that the yatra, which provides livelihood to thousands of people in the hill state, be allowed to go ahead.

The stakeholders include temple trusts, hotels, restaurants, chopper companies, tour guides, travel agents, owners of tourist vehicles and other businesses that cater to tourists.

The yatra provides employment opportunities to more than 10,000 people, thereby forming an economic ecosystem which benefits the shrines as well as the areas around these shrines.

The HC had banned the yatra earlier this year citing Covid-19 threat following which the state government had moved the SC against the order.

The High Court, on June 28, stayed the state cabinet's decision to start the yatra from July 1. More than 38 lakh pilgrims visited the shrines in 2019. In contrast, only 4.2 lakh visited in 2020.

Centre names new governors for four states

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THREE states â " Tamil Nadu, Nagaland and Punjab â " will have new governors after the government on Thursday announced a major shuffle. Besides these states, a new governor was also appointed for Uttarakhand, where the post fell vacant after Baby Rani Maurya tendered her resignation.

Nagaland governor R N Ravi has replaced Banwarilal Purohit as Tamil Nadu governor, who was shifted to Punjab in the same role, according to a communiquÃ© issued by Rashtrapati Bhavan. On August 27, Purohit was given additional charge as Punjab Governor and administrator of Chandigarh after V P Singh Badnore's term ended.

Assam Governor Professor Jagdish Mukhi has been given additional charge of Nagaland, replacing Ravi, a 1976-batch IPS officer from the Kerala cadre. He was also the Centre's interlocutor for Naga peace talks. Lt Gen (retd) Gurmit Singh has been appointed as Governor of Uttarakhand.

A highly decorated officer, Lt Gen Singh retired from the Army in February 2016 after nearly four decades of service, during which he held important posts of Deputy Chief of Army Staff, Adjutant General and Corps Commander of the strategic XV Corps that overlooks the Line of Control in Kashmir.

He was also handling China operational and military strategic issues as Additional Director General of Military Operations. During his stint in the Army, he was part of numerous expert groups, joint working groups, annual dialogues and China study group meetings for over a decade.

Lt Gen Singh visited China seven times for important military diplomatic and border or Line of Actual Control meetings.

200 FOREIGNERS LEAVE KABUL IN FIRST AIRLIFT SINCE US RETREAT

Evacuation marked a significant breakthrough in coordination between US & Taliban rulers

KABUL

SOME 200 foreigners, including Americans, flew out of Afghanistan on an international commercial flight from Kabul airport on Thursday, the first such large-scale departure since US and foreign forces concluded their frantic withdrawal at the end of last month.

The Qatar Airways flight to Doha marked a significant breakthrough in the bumpy coordination between the US and Afghanistan's new Taliban rulers. A dayslong stand-off over charter planes at another airport had left dozens of passengers stranded and cast doubt on Taliban assurances to allow foreigners and Afghans with proper travel documents to leave the country.

A senior US official, who spoke on condition of anonymity because he wasn't authorized to brief the media, provided the number of Westerners on board and said that two very senior Taliban officials had helped facilitate the departure. Americans, green card holders and other nationalities including Germans, Hungarians and Canadians were on the flight, the official said.

As Taliban authorities patrolled the tarmac, passengers presented their documents for checking, and sniffer dogs inspected luggage laid out on the ground. Some of the veteran airport workers had returned to their jobs after fleeing during the harrowing chaos of the US-led airlift.

Irfan Popalzai, 12, among those boarding the flight with his mother and five brothers and sisters, said his family lives in Maryland.

"I am an Afghan, but you know I am from America and I am so excited (to leave)," he said. AP

'Al-Qaeda may seek comeback in Afghanistan'

KUWAIT CITY

US DEFENSE Secretary Lloyd Austin said Thursday the al-Qaeda extremist group that used Afghanistan as a staging base to attack United States 20 years ago may attempt to regenerate there following an American withdrawal that has left the Taliban in power.

Austin said the United States is prepared to prevent an al-Qaida comeback in Afghanistan that would threaten the US. "The whole community is kind of watching to see what happens and whether or not al-Qaida has the ability to regenerate in Afghanistan," he said.

"The nature of al-Qaida and (the Islamic State group) is they will always attempt to find space to grow and regenerate, whether it's there, whether it's in Somalia, or whether it's in any other ungoverned space," Aistin said. AP

Rallies called off after Taliban outlaw protests

KABUL

PROTEST organisers cancelled rallies in Kabul on Thursday after the Taliban effectively banned demonstrations, warning violators "will face severe legal action".

Earlier this week armed fighters dispersed hundreds of protesters in cities across Afghanistan, including the capital Kabul, Faizabad in the northeast and in Herat in the west, where two people were shot dead. Late Wednesday, the Taliban moved to snuff out any further civil unrest, saying protests would need prior authorisation from the justice ministry, adding "for the time being" no demonstrations were allowed.

There was a noticeably stronger Taliban presence on the streets of Kabul on Thursday morning as armed fighters — including special forces in military fatigues — stood guard on street corners and manned checkpoints.

An organiser of a protest outside the Pakistan embassy — where gunmen sprayed shots into the air on Tuesday to disperse a rally — said it had been cancelled because of the overnight ban.

At the site of another planned protest in the city, there were no signs of a demonstration.

A Taliban interim government, drawn exclusively from loyalist ranks, formally began work this week with established hardliners in all key posts and no women — despite previous promises of an inclusive administration for all Afghans.

Tuesday night's announcement of the cabinet was a key step in the Taliban's consolidation of power, following a stunning military victory that saw them oust the administration on August 15. AFP

Virus emergency in Tokyo extended

Tokyo: Japan announced on Thursday it is extending a coronavirus state of emergency in Tokyo and 18 other areas until the end of September as health care systems remain under severe strain, although new infections have slowed slightly. The current state of emergency, which was to end on Sunday, was issued first in Okinawa in May and gradually expanded. Despite the prolonged emergency, the largely voluntary measures have become less effective as the exhausted public increasingly ignores them. Prime Minister Yoshihide Suga said serious cases remain high and called on the people to continue to work remotely and other social distancing measures "so that we can return to safe and prosperous daily lives." AP

Macedonia blaze in Covid hospital kills 14

SKOPJE

NORTH Macedonia's government was holding an emergency meeting on Thursday over an overnight fire that ripped through a field hospital set up to treat Covid patients, leaving 14 people dead.

The blaze broke out late Wednesday in the western city of Tetovo, where the hospital had been set up following a recent spike in infections in the region that left local hospitals full.

The main prosecutor's office in the capital, Skopje, said 14 people had been killed in the blaze. There were no medical personnel among them. Tetovo Mayor Teuta Arifi declared three days of mourning for the victims.

The prosecutor's office ordered forensic experts to identify the remains, with the process expected to take longer than usual due to special protocols required because the victims were Covid patients.

About a dozen people were injured, though the exact figure wasn't immediately available.

"We saw the explosion and when we came here everything was in flames," said local resident Nexhmedin Haliti. "Firefighters arrived and started to put the fire out, it lasted for 15- 20 minutes. Everything burnt out."

Five prosecutors, from Tetovo and Skopje, are working on the investigation into the causes of the fire. AP

Islamists suffer heavy defeat in Morocco polls

RABAT

MOROCCO'S long-ruling Islamists have suffered a crushing defeat in parliamentary elections to liberal parties seen as close to the palace, according to provisional results announced on Thursday. The Justice and Development Party (PJD), which headed the governing coalition for a decade, saw its support collapse from 125 seats in the outgoing assembly to just 12, Interior Minister Abdelouafi Laftit said during a press briefing following Wednesday's polls.

Former PM and PJD leader Abdelilha Benkirane urged the current party boss Saad-Eddine El Othmani to resign, with an official party reaction expected later Thursday. The PJD was far behind its main liberal rivals, the National Rally of Independents (RNI) and the Authenticity and Modernity Party, with 97 and 82, respectively, and the centre-right Istiqlal Party with 78 seats in the 395-seat assembly.

The RNI, which was a junior member of the governing coalition, is headed by billionaire businessman Aziz Akhannouch, described as close to the palace. AFP

Pro-Bolsonaro truckers block Brazil highways

BRASÍLIA

TRUCK drivers blocked highways across Brazil on Thursday in support of President Jair Bolsonaro, who has sought to fire up his far-right base as he fights sinking poll numbers and a hostile political establishment.

The truckers launched their protest Tuesday on Brazilian Independence Day, when Bolsonaro held massive demonstrations to rally his base against what he calls attacks by the Supreme Court and electoral authorities.

The drivers continued blocking major roads in at least 15 of Brazil's 27 states even though Bolsonaro himself called on them to stop. "Tell our allies the truckers that the blockades are hurting the economy. It causes shortages, inflation — it harms everyone, especially the poor," he said in a message sent to supporters Wednesday night.

The infrastructure ministry said there were 10 percent fewer blockades early Thursday, but it was not immediately clear whether the holdouts would comply with Bolsonaro's request.

In Brasilia, dozens of drivers parked their trucks in the middle of the Esplanade of Ministries, at the heart of the capital, and refused to leave. They displayed protest signs calling for a "military intervention with Bolsonaro in power" and "prison for the corrupt justices of the SC." AFP

Britain's plans to turn back migrant boats stoke tensions with France

LONDON

BRITAIN and France locked horns on Thursday over reported plans by London to turn back boats carrying migrants across the Channel, triggering alarm and anger in Paris.

At least 14,100 people have now crossed the Channel to the UK on small boats this year, according to Britain's domestic Press Association news agency — some 6,000 more than for the whole of 2020. A record 828 people crossed over from France on a single day in late August, as traffickers took advantage of favourable late-summer weather.

The growing number of boats is proving increasingly embarrassing for Home Secretary Priti Patel, who has carved out a reputation for being tough on immigration and law and order. Prime Minister Boris Johnson's Downing Street office said on Thursday that "it's right that our Border Force has the right range of tactics to address this problem". Patel has also reportedly threatened to withhold £54 million ($75 million) in funding pledged to Paris to help tackle the issue.

However, French Interior Minister Gerald Darmanin said on Thursday that France would not accept Britain violating international maritime law. "France will not accept any practice that breaks maritime law, nor any financial blackmail," Darmanin wrote on Twitter, a day after meeting Patel.

France has a policy of not intercepting or turning back migrant boats unless they ask for help, and instead escorts them to British waters. That has stoked anger in Brexit-supporting sections of the British media and the government in London, who accuse France of shirking its responsibilities.

France for its part has said it would not make payment "conditional on numerical targets", warning that to do so would damage relations. "Such an approach would reflect a serious loss of confidence in our cooperation," a French interior ministry source said.

Downing Street insisted that Britain "won't break maritime law" with the new plans.

It also dismissed the claims of blackmail, saying "we've provided our French counterparts significant sums of money and we've agreed another bilateral agreement backed by millions of pounds." AFP

Future-Reliance deal: SC stays Delhi HC proceeding

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday stayed the proceedings in the dispute between Amazon and Future Retail Limited pending before the Delhi High Court for four weeks.

The stay is on the enforcement of the emergency arbitrator's order by the high court.

A bench of Chief Justice of India NV Ramana and Justices Surya Kant and AS Bopanna also directed the National Company Law Tribunal, Competition Commission of India, and Securities and Exchange Board of the India not to pass any final order in relation to the dispute for four weeks.

The bench stated that it was passing the order taking into consideration the fact that the Future group has approached the Singapore International Arbitration Centre to vacate the interim order passed by the Emergency Arbitrator and arguments have been concluded in that.

"Nothing will happen in four weeks. Issue notice. Taking into consideration the challenge to Emergency Arbitrator award is pending before tribunal under SIAC Rules," the bench noted.

The order came on Future Coupons Private Ltd and Future Retail Ltd appeal against the order passed by the single bench of the Delhi High Court that directed attachment of assets of Future group companies and its promoter Kishore Biyani and issued a show-cause notice for civil arrest of Biyani and other directors of Future Group for breach of the Emergency Award.

No final order for 4 weeks

A bench of Chief Justice NV Ramana and Justices Surya Kant and AS Bopanna directed the National Company Law Tribunal, Competition Commission of India, and SEBI not to pass any final order in relation to the dispute for four weeks.

During the hearing, CJI orally remarked, "The issue is, we must be fair. In a matter of this magnitude, if hearing takes place without giving opportunity to parties, how can one pass orders attaching property, pay cost, etc. What is this!"

At this, senior advocate Gopal Subramanium submitted that Amazon has no interest in taking punitive action against Future group or in sending its promoters to jail but wanted compliance of the award.

Senior advocate Harish Salve argued that the single judge's order went beyond the scope of Emergency Award and had the effect of prejudging the issues which are pending final adjudication before the Tribunal.

On August 6, the apex court had allowed the appeal filed by Amazon against a Delhi High Court order staying the attachment of properties of Future Group companies and Kishore Biyani in relation to the Future-Reliance deal.

Govt blames imports for edible oil price hike

Says, keeping close watch on international prices; states told to take disclosures of stocks from millers, stockists

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

WITH the prices of edible oils keep on increasing, the government blames it on dependency on imports and said despite price fluctuation in the international market, it is keeping a close watch on the commodity.

"A close watch is kept on day to day basis on production, imports and prices of edible oils and so that appropriate measures can be taken to keep a check on the prices of edible oil," Ministry of Consumer Affairs, Food & Public Distribution said on Thursday.

The price of edible oils has spiked by over 50% in last one year, with even basic mustard oil price going up to ₹214 per litre, making it unaffordable for the common household. Along with the hike in fuel and LPG prices, household budget of a family has gone up, at a time when people are struggling with pay cuts and job losses.

"In a move to check the unfair practices of any and bring transparency in the availability of edible oils, the Centre has asked states to take disclosures of stock of edible oilseeds and oils with the millers and stockist. This move is being made to ensure that there is no unfair practice and consequent rise of edible oils due to hoarding of any kind," the consumer affairs ministry said.

The government clarified that this is not a stock limitation order of any kind. The Secretary, Food and Public Distribution, is expected to take a meeting with state officials on Friday to take the matter further and ensure that compliance is done appropriately.

Experts said that price movement has become steeper after the government in September last year passed a bill to remove cereals, pulses, oilseeds, edible oils, onion and potatoes from the list of essential commodities. "If you will watch the price movement of these commodities, you can draw your conclusion. While this is the most business friendly of all farm laws, the danger is that what if businesses develop monopoly. We have record mustard seed production yet the benefit is hardly reaching the consumers," said a senior researcher, who did not wish to be named.

The government blamed it on costly imports. "Around 60% of the edible oils consumed in the country are met through imports... palm oil constitutes around 54% of the total edible oil imported mainly from Indonesia and Malaysia, while Soyabean oil constitutes around 25% and is imported from Argentina and Brazil and Sunflower oil constitutes 19% and is imported mainly from Ukraine," the ministry added.

We believe that Sudhir Sitapati's appointment as MD and CEO for a period of five years could have a transformational change on GCPL's fortunes, unlocking the path to strong earnings growth for GCPL, along with: a) better capital allocation efforts in recent years, b) appointment of a new head in (the erstwhile significantly underperforming) GAUM (largely Africa) business, with good initial results in the first year of his tenure in FY21, and c) potential tailwind in Soaps and Personal Wash products. We maintain our Buy rating.

Jio-BP, Tata Power announce tie-ups to set up EV charging infrastructure

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Chennai

IN a sign of growing demand for and use of electric vehicles (EV), two of India's largest energy companies on Thursday announced tie-ups to set up charging infrastructure to service EVs.

For its part, Reliance Industries' joint venture with British Petroleum (BP)—Jio-BP—has tied up with all-electric ride-hailing platform BluSmart to set up commercial large-scale EV charging infrastructure in locations where the latter operates. Tata Power meanwhile also announced a partnership with the Lodha group to set up such a network in Mumbai and Pune.

Both Jio-BP and BluSmart will collaborate in planning, development, and the operation of EV charging infrastructure, at suitable locations, Jio-BP said in a statement. "With the first phase-roll out in the national capital region, these EV charging stations will be capable of accommodating a minimum of 30 vehicles at each station and will be concentrated in urban areas," it noted.

Anmol Jaggi, co-founder and CEO, BluSmart said that EV Superhubs are the future of EV charging since they provide seamless charging access to consumers and ride-hailing fleets. "We will be jointly building some of the largest EV Superhubs in the world," he said.

Tata Power's tie-up with real estate developer Lodha Group meanwhile will provide electric vehicle charging infrastructure at the latter's residential and commercial projects in Mumbai and Pune.

Tata Power currently has an extensive network of over 5,000 home chargers and over 600 public chargers in more than 120 cities in India, the company said in a statement. "This strategic partnership will allow us access to a vast consumer base of EV users at Lodha. Our aim is to make their life simple and comfortable by allowing easy access to EV charging from the comfort of their homes and offices, thereby, removing range anxiety and encouraging wider adoption of electric vehicles in the country," said Sandeep Bangia, Head-EV Charging, Tata Power.

Recovery to continue even with 3rd Covid wave: Finmin

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

EXPRESSING satisfaction over the first quarter growth, the finance ministry on Thursday said that India is poised for an even faster recovery in the next three quarters 22 and the momentum will continue despite the event of third Covid wave.

"A broad based rebound in several leading macroeconomic indicators in July and August offer bright prospects for India's continued economic recovery. India is poised for an even faster recovery in the next three quarters of 2021-22. Rapidly increasing vaccination coverage and richer experience with pandemic management provide the confidence that the recovery can be continued even in the event of a third wave," finance ministry said in its latest monthly economic review.

Experts have warned that there could be a possible third wave, which can dent the recovery.

The ministry, however, expressed concern over high incidence of Covid cases in Kerala and Maharashtra and underlined the need for strengthening pandemic control and management in these states. "The fast-paced recovery is further evident in growth of power consumption, rail freight, highway toll collections, e-way bills, digital transactions, air passenger traffic and robust GST collections," the report added, citing various economic parametres. The report said that the government's finances improved during April-July 2021 over the corresponding period of last year, with growth in tax collection.

Govt to clear export incentive arrears worth ₹56,000 cr in this financial year

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE government has decided to clear all pending export incentive dues amounting to ₹56,027 crore in the current financial year itself. The decision of the government would benefit more than 45,000 exporters, 98% of whom are small exporters in the MSME category.

This amount includes claims relating to MEIS (₹33,010 crore), SEIS (₹10,002 crore), RoSL (₹330 crore), other scrip-based schemes relating to earlier policies and the remission support for RoDTEP (₹2,568 crore) and RoSCTL (₹5,286 cr) for exports made in the 4th quarter of 2020-21.

This amount is over and above duty remission amount of ₹12,454 crore for the RoDTEP scheme and ₹6,946 crore for RoSCTL scheme already announced for exports made in the current financial year.

According to a statement by the Ministry of Commerce and Industry, the decision to clear all pending export incentives within this financial year will lead to even more rapid export growth in coming months.

Exports in India have seen robust growth in recent months. Merchandise exports for April-August, 2021 was nearly $164 billion, which is an increase of 67% over 2020-21 and 23% over 2019-20.

To claim benefits relating to earlier years, exporters will have to file by December 31, 2021 beyond which they will become time barred. The online IT portal will be enabled shortly to accept MEIS and other scrip-based applications. "A decision to clear all pending export incentives within this financial year itself despite other budgetary commitments arising out of the pandemic is with the objective of providing timely and crucial support to this vital pillar of Indian economy," says the commerce ministry statement.

I-T RETURN FILING DATES EXTENDED TILL DEC 31

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @New Delhi

DIFFICULTIES faced by taxpayers due to technical glitches in the e-filing website of the tax department have forced the government to extend the due dates for filing of income tax returns by three more months from 30 September 2021 to 31 December 2021.

Earlier, the government had extended the date of filing returns from 31st July to 30th September. Apart from income tax returns, the due dates for several other direct tax-related compliances have also been extended.

The due date for furnishing of returns for the assessment year 2021-22, has been extended from 31st December 2021 to 28th February 2022. The last date for filing revised returns for the Assessment Year 2021-22 has been extended from 31st January 2022 to 31st March 2022.

Similarly, the due date of furnishing of Report of Audit under any provision of the Act for 2020-21 has been extended to 15th January 2022, which earlier was 31st October 2021.

Taxpayers have reported several technical issues in the new e-filing website of the income tax department since its launch on 7 June 2021.

Ford folds up in India, over 4,000 jobs on the line

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

DEALING a blow to Prime Minister Narendra Modi's Make in India initiative, US carmaker Ford on Thursday said it was shutting its manufacturing plants in the country in view of muted growth and $2 billion losses over the past 10 years. The move will impact at least 4,000 jobs across the two plants in Tamil Nadu and Gujarat. Industry sources said another 40,000 people employed with Ford dealers across the country will also be affected.

Ford has two manufacturing plants in India – one each in Chennai and Sanand. The company plans to wind down vehicle assembly in Sanand by the fourth quarter of this year and vehicle and engine manufacturing in Chennai by the second quarter of 2022. The sale of its products such as Figo, Aspire, Freestyle, EcoSport and Endeavour will cease once existing dealer inventories are sold out.

"As part of our Ford+ plan, we are taking difficult but necessary actions to deliver a sustainably profitable business longer-term and allocate our capital to grow and create value in the right areas," said Jim Farley, Ford Motor Company's president and CEO.

The decision to exit Indian market comes at a time when industry veterans have warned against high tax rates and shrinkage of consumer base.

Ford's sales in India have been on a downward trajectory. Its market share in FY21 fell below 2% despite the company being here for over 25 years. Ford India also posted a 65% dip in exports last year. The company, which was the largest exporter of cars from India in FY19, slipped to third spot in the past year as exports dipped to 46,064 units in FY21, down from 1,31,476 a year before.

According to industry analysts, India remains a tough market for US and European carmakers. The US firm said it took the decision after considering several options including partnerships, platform sharing, contract manufacturing with other OEMs and the possibility of selling its manufacturing plants, which is still under consideration.

Rashid quits as captain after Afghans name T20 WC squad

A few minutes after the Afghanistan Cricket Board announced an 18-member squad and two reserve players for the ICC T20 World Cup, Rashid Khan stepped down as captain saying the selection committee and ACB did not keep him in the loop. "As captain, I reserve the right to be part of the selection of the team," he posted on Twitter.

TESTING TIMES AHEAD

Final match at Old Trafford on for now after all India players return Covid negative

VENKATA KRISHNA B @Chennai

THE fifth Test in Manchester looks set to go ahead as scheduled after the entire Indian team tested negative in the latest RT-PCR tests taken after their assistant physiotherapist Yogesh Parmar contracted Covid-19 on Wednesday. The late-night development hasn't been received well by the Indian players, who see the Test as potentially high-risk after a few of their regulars in the XI were treated by Parmar as recently as Wednesday — the day he developed Covid symptoms.

A final confirmation is expected on Friday morning, when the teams are scheduled to undergo a lateral flow test. The BCCI medical team is also closely monitoring whether any one else develops any symptoms.

It is understood that the BCCI did explore whether the Test can be cancelled with the ECB, but with the entire team testing negative, the local health guidelines permit the match to go ahead. While the ECB believes this is a good enough reason for the final Test to go ahead with England needing a win to square the series, the BCCI fears that in case there are any more positive cases, then it could have implications on the resumption of the IPL in the UAE from September 19.

Also if India decides to not play the Test, the ECB is understood to have informed the BCCI that it would consider the match as forfeited. Soon after Parmar's result came, the Indian team's practice session was cancelled and the entire team was placed under isolation. Even though the local guidelines don't prevent the match from going ahead, the players' concerns are understandable as some of them have families by their side. It is reliably learnt that India captain Virat Kohli and head coach Ravi Shastri, who himself is under isolation in London after testing Covid-19 positive, explained the team's concern to the top brass of the BCCI and left the decision to them.

That Parmar, who tested negative in the tests taken in London after Shastri tested positive, developed symptoms only after reaching Manchester is not lost on the players. Keeping the concerns in mind, the BCCI and ECB have decided to place the teams in a separate wing of a hotel, where access to the general public will be denied. Although there were few restrictions for the players, this series is not being played in a strict bio-bubble and teams were allowed to visit public places.

After senior physiotherapist Nitin Patel was placed under isolation after being identified as a close contact of Shastri, Parmar has been handling the team since the fifth day of the Oval Test. Even though Patel has since rejoined the team after returning negative in the RT-PCR test, he is still under isolation in Manchester.

Under these circumstances, Parmar attended to the likes of Rohit Sharma, Cheteshwar Pujara, Ravindra Jadeja and Mohammed Shami, all of whom had niggles. It is understood that Parmar developed symptoms on Wednesday, after India's first training session at Old Trafford. Should the Test start as scheduled and if there is a Covid outbreak, then the playing conditions permit the match to be abandoned.

India's chance to seal series

The series is wonderfully poised with India 2-1 up and both teams have all to play for at Old Trafford should Covid concerns be addressed.

Jadeja out, Ashwin in

Word from Manchester is the pitch is dry and with Ravindra Jadeja likely to be benched due to a niggle, R Ashwin is all set to feature. Expect a few changes in the composition of XI as India are preparing to rotate their pacers. Even though Ajinkya Rahane is struggling for runs, he will be persisted with.

FORECAST

It isn't great. Rain is predicted on all five days of the Test.

Headache for England

While England have been expecting conditons to favour them, a dry pitch is the last thing they would have expected given they risk losing a second series this home summer. Like India, they too have to deal with a tiring attack. Mark Wood could return.

Davis Cup: India captain irked by Nagal absence

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN
@ Chennai

THE two-day India vs Finland Davis Cup World Group first round match begins next Friday. A depleted visitors — sans Sumit Nagal and Sasikumar Mukund — will start slight underdogs against the hosts, who have nominated the likes of Emil Ruusuvuori (singles World No 66) and Henri Kontinen (doubles World No 45). However, Nagal will likely be in action in the same week as the Davis Cup. His name is there in the entry list of the Pekao Challenger, a tournament beginning on September 13. Nagal had originally withdrawn from Davis Cup duties, citing a hip injury.

However, the World N0 164 has been playing on the circuit since he cited his hip injury in a letter to All India Tennis Association (AITA). He has turned up at the Como Challenger (August last week) as well as the Banja Luka Challenger (this week). Both were on clay.

It's not gone down well with AITA. "I'm here in Finland without three of my best singles players," captain Rohit Rajpal told this daily. "There's no Yuki Bhambri, Nagal and Mukund." While the former is nursing an injury, the 24-year-old Nagal seems to be prioritising picking up maximum points over the Davis Cup. However, that is a very understandable move. It's something that's been done by a lot of players of other countries as well, especially ones who are ranked outside the top 100. With the season coming to a close in two months, year-end targets have to be met. And finishing inside the top 100 is an important goal if Nagal is to make the automatic cut for the Australian Open early next year.

After Nagal had withdrawn, AITA had asked Mukund for his availability but the World No 325 replied in the negative. "We did ask the likes of Mukund before selecting Saketh Myneni for the squad," AITA selection committee chairman, Nandan Bal, had told this daily last month.

Djokovic rolls into semifinals

AFP @ New York

NOVAK Djokovic moved within two matches of completing the first men's calendar-year singles Grand Slam in 52 years on Wednesday, rallying to defeat Matteo Berrettini in a US Open quarterfinal. Djokovic stretched his Grand Slam win streak to 26 matches by eliminating sixth seed Berrettini 5-7, 6-2, 6-2, 6-3 at Arthur Ashe Stadium in a rematch of July's Wimbledon final. "I think it was a great performance overall," Djokovic said, calling his last three sets "the best three sets I've played in the tournament."

He booked a semifinal date on Friday against Olympic champion Alexander Zverev, who beat Djokovic in the semifinals in Tokyo. "He's in tremendous form. He has been winning a lot," Djokovic said. "He's one of the best players in the world right now and I'm pumped. The bigger the challenge, the more glory in overcoming it." Djokovic is trying to become the first man to win all four major titles in the same year since Rod Laver in 1969, but he wasn't ready ponder the glory of that challenge just yet.

German fourth seed Zverev reached his fourth career Slam semifinal by eliminating South Africa's 46th-ranked Lloyd Harris 7-6 (6), 6-3, 6-4.

Commonwealth C'ships cancelled

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

THE Commonwealth Senior, Junior & Youth Championships, which could have been the first international meet for the Indian weightlifters, has been cancelled. It was scheduled to be held in Singapore from October 20 to 24.

According to a press release issued by the Commonwealth Weightlifting Federation (CWF), the government of Singapore was very concerned with coronavirus and its continual spread throughout the world and therefore they have cancelled all major events in Singapore, including the Commonwealth Championships. The event was also a qualifier for the 2022 Birmingham Commonwealth Games with the highest placed athlete in each eligible group gaining a direct qualification.

"In a way, it's (cancellation) good for the Indian lifters as they hardly got time to prepare for the championships," Vijay Sharma, head coach of the national weightlifting team, said.

As many as 27 men and 28 women including Tokyo Olympic silver medallist Mirabai Chanu are at the national camp being organised for the senior lifters at NIS Patiala. Besides, around 80 junior and cadet lifters are also camping at the venue. Full story: newindianexpress.com

Poland grab late goal to hold Eng

AFP @ Warsaw

ENGLAND'S 100 per cent record in World Cup qualifying was ended in dramatic fashion by Damian Szymanski's stoppage-time equaliser in a 1-1 draw with Poland in Warsaw on Wednesday.

A game short on goalmouth action looked to be meandering towards a stalemate until Harry Kane's long-range strike 18 minutes from time deceived Wojciech Szczesny.

But Szymanski rescued a point that could be vital to the Poles' chances of sealing second place in Group I of European qualifying by crashing home a header from Robert Lewandowski's cross. England are now four points clear of second-placed Albania and five ahead of Poland.

Chinese authorities have ordered gaming giants to end their focus on profits and cut content perceived to be breeding "effeminacy", as Beijing tries to direct youth culture, gender ideals and the reach of big tech

INDIAN-BORN RESEARCHER SHARES PRIZE WORTH $3 MN

Shankar Balasubramanian among awardees of 2022 Breakthrough Prize in life sciences

SCIENCE

WASHINGTON: Indian-born researcher Shankar Balasubramanian and Britain-based physical scientist David Klenerman won the prestigious 2022 Breakthrough Prize in Life sciences, alongside the French biophysicist Pascal Mayer.

The American prize, launched by Silicon Valley entrepreneurs to recognize the latest scientific advances, carries an award of a hefty $3 million, compared to $1 million given to Nobel Prize laureates. Balasubramanian and his colleagues will get $1 million each. They developed a rapid and inexpensive DNA sequencing technique used around the world in the battle against Covid-19. Using the new method, known as next generation sequencing (NGS), scientists can analyze coronavirus mutations day by day to identify and monitor new variants.

Without this technique, studying the rapidly spreading new Covid-19 mutations would be much more costly and, more importantly, take much longer, Mayer told AFP.

The sequencing of the first complete human genome was completed in 2003, after ten years and an investment of over $1 billion. The technique that was used then is called Sanger sequencing.

Thanks to NGS, also called massive parallel sequencing, the process can now be done overnight at a cost of $1,000.One of the keys to his technique is creating clusters of DNA, by cutting up the genome into small pieces, then creating thousands of copies of them and grouping them into islands of sorts.

mRNA vaccine

The University of Pennsylvania immunologist, Drew Weissman, had done decades of research that helped pave the way for mRNA Covid-19 vaccine. He shared the $3 million Breakthrough Prize in life sciences with his longtime collaborator Katalin Kariko.

The mRNA (messenger ribonucleic acid) vaccines deliver genetic instructions to our cells to build the spike protein of the coronavirus, in order to evoke antibodies when we encounter the real virus.

Another among the awardees was Jeffrey W. Kelly at the Scripps Research Institute, whose work focused on the treatement of amyloid diseases that can have an impact on the heart and nervous system and can cause neurodegeneration.

Oz to mine coal amid climate crisis

CLIMATE

SYDNEY: Australia vowed Thursday to keep mining coal for export and said global demand was rising, rejecting a study that warned nearly all its reserves must stay in the ground to address the climate crisis at hand.

Researchers warned in a study published in the journal Nature this week that 89 percent of global coal reserves — and 95% of Australia's share — must be left untouched.

Such restraint, they said, would still only offer a 50% chance of limiting warming to 1.5 degrees Celsius above pre-industrial levels — the current global goal.

But Prime Minister Scott Morrison said Thursday Australia's energy exports were needed to power developing countries, and predicted technology would enable them to be burned "in a much more climate-friendly way" in the future.

"We will keep mining the resources that we're able to sell on the world market," Morrison told when asked if he would put an "expiration date" on the coal mining industry.

"We obviously anticipate that over time world demand for these things may change." Under existing agreements, developing countries are able to use Australian resources "well into the future", Morrison said. Negotiators from 196 countries will join the 26th edition of the UN Climate Change Conference of the Parties — COP26 —in the Scottish city of Glasgow in November.

Fire at ISS spurs safety concerns

SPACE

MOSCOW: A smoke alarm sounded Thursday in Russia's segment of the International Space Station (ISS) and astronauts smelled "burning" on board, Russia's space agency and NASA said.

The incident, which the Russian space agency Roscosmos said happened at 01:55 GMT ahead of a scheduled spacewalk, is the latest in a string of problems to spur safety concerns over conditions on the Russian segment. "A smoke detector was triggered in the Zvezda service module of the Russian segment of the ISS during automatic battery charging, and an alarm went off," Roscosmos said in a statement.

French astronaut Thomas Pesquet said "the smell of burning plastic or electronic equipment" wafted to the US segment of the station. The Russian crew turned on a filter and after the air was cleaned up the astronauts went back to sleep, Roscosmos said. Russia's Oleg Novitsky and Pyotr Dubrov are scheduled to leave the station to continue work on the Nauka science module that docked in July. Citing concerns stemming from ageing hardware, Russia has previously indicated that it plans to leave the ISS after 2025 and launch its own orbital station.
